Truman Ends Holiday Stay In Missouri

Returning To White House
To Take Up Program
For New Congress

TO MEET BARKLEY
EARLY THURSDAY
(BULLETIN)

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Dec. 29.—(INS)—President Truman left Independence today for Washington to resume his official tasks and complete his legislative recommendations to the new Democratic Congress.

The official plane, Independence, took off from Fairfax Field, Kansas City, Kan., at 10:10 a. m. CST, and was scheduled to arrive at the capital this afternoon.

With the president are White House secretaries Charles G. Ross and Matthew J. Connelly, Maj. Gen. Harry S. Vaughan, the president's military aide, and Brig. Gen. Robert B. Landry, his air force aide.

Family Remains
Mrs. Truman and Miss Margaret Truman, the president's daughter, plan to remain in Independence and to return to Washington in January by train for the president's inauguration Jan. 20.

Newsmen and photographers who accompanied the president on his Christmas trip to his home in Independence left for Washington by another plane.

The president has arranged to confer this afternoon with Philip Murray, president of Congress of Industrial Organization, and several other C.I.O. officials.

To Confer With Barkley
Mr. Truman has arranged a major conference at the White House tomorrow with Vice President-elect Barkley and Rep. Rayburn (D) Tex., who is slated to be House Speaker in the 81st Congress.

The chief executive will go over with them the legislative proposals which he has drafted for submission to Congress. He probably will discuss, too, his State of the Union message which he will deliver personally to a joint session of the House and Senate on Jan. 5.

White House press secretary Charles G. Ross says the conference is evidence of the close cooperation between the president and the new Congress.

Pa Newc Observes
Pa Newc observed a motorist, who evidently was very much confused, crash a red light, going west at the Diamond, and then make a left turn at a forbidden spot.

Second ward honor roll board having been removed, Owen Fox, city parks caretaker, intends to place a cement chair where the board stood on which flowers and wreaths may be placed.

One of the most striking holiday decorations in the district is to be found on the Walmo to Highland Heights road, near Highland Heights, Pa. Newc is told. It is completely outlined and decorated in blue lights.

Arrangements are being made for watch meetings in numerous churches of the city and community for Friday night, when the departure of 1948 and entrance of 1949 will be hailed.

Today's rain and mild weather have temporarily put a halt to enjoyment of skating that was just getting well under way in the city and county for the season.

Another suggestion has been made for use of discarded Christmas trees. The suggestion is that the trees be left in the holders and set out in the yard, and used as a base for feeding birds during the severe weather. Foodstuff for the birds could be attached to the tree and the spot under the tree kept clear of snow, and feed also placed there.

Daily Weather Report
United States weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at nine o'clock a. m. today follow:
Maximum temperature, 45.
Minimum temperature, 35.
Precipitation, .25 inches.
River stage, 5.7 feet.

Statistics for the same date a year ago, follow:
Maximum temperature, 33.
Minimum temperature, 17.
Precipitation, .61 inches.

Piloted Plane Rescuing Airmen

Lt. Col. Emil G. Beaudry (right) of Manchester, N. H., who flew the ski-fitted C-47 which rescued 12 airmen stranded on a Greenland ice cap, steps from another plane at Blue West One field in Greenland after an earlier unsuccessful rescue attempt. With him is 1st Lt. Calvin Jackson (left), of Salt Lake City.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The 12 airmen snatched from the ice-floes of Greenland today in a dramatic "jet rescue" were southward bound today for a spectacular welcome in New York.

Lt. Col. Charles Short, public information officer at Westover Field, Mass., announced that the rescued airmen and the heroic pilots who lifted them from the icecap will be flown nonstop from Labrador to La Guardia Field, New York.

Short added that flight plans and arrival time depend upon weather conditions.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Twelve airmen snatched from the ice-floes of Greenland today in a spectacular airplane rescue are en route today to a rousing welcome in the United States.

The public relations office at Westover Air Force Base, Mass., announced that the rescued men, along with the airmen that saved them in a jet-assisted, ski-equipped C-47 transport plane, had arrived at Goose Bay, Labrador, en route to the U. S.

Westover Field said they spent the night at Goose Bay and proceed to this country today, weather permitting.

Hope Dwindles
For 30 Aboard
Missing Plane
MIAMI, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Hope dwindled today for the lives of 30 persons aboard a missing chartered DC-3 airliner after hours of fruitless search for the plane.

The airliner, carrying 27 passengers and a crew of three, was long overdue on a flight from Puerto Rico to Miami. Officials feared the plane crashed into the sea.

Authorities said the search was resumed at dawn.

Most of the passengers were believed to be Puerto Ricans returning to New York from a Christmas holiday. Two babies were reported to be among the passengers on the twin-engine transport, operated by the Airborne Transport company of New York.

CAA officials said the plane's crew filed an instrument flight plan, designating departure and arrival times, before leaving San Juan.

Search 900-Mile Area
Authorities reported that 43 search crafts were sent back to their bases after darkness halted operations last night.

The hunt for the missing airline spread over a 900-mile area from Miami to San Juan and involved Army, Navy and Coast Guard planes from bases in Florida and the Caribbean.

Coast Guard officers said the DC-3 was fully equipped with survival equipment, including life rafts, individual life preservers and a "Gibson girl" emergency radio.

Radiomen said no calls had been received on 500 kilocycles the international distress frequency to which all "Gibson girl" transmitters are set.

Holland Promises Fighting In Java Will End Friday

PARIS, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Holland promised the United Nations Security Council today that fighting will end in Java at midnight Friday and the political prisoners will be released.

J. H. Van Royen, Netherlands delegate, replied to the council's demand of yesterday for compliance within 24 hours with a cease-fire order and agreement for release of Indonesian prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Creation of an Allied authority to control production of the Ruhr Valley today promised to touch off violent debate both here and abroad.

The Ruhr Valley Authority was proposed by the six powers with a direct interest in curbing Germany's war-making potential. They are the United States, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Reich Agreement
A draft agreement was arrived at in London after weeks of negotiation among technical experts of the six nations. In its final form it was expected to satisfy the demands of France that the Ruhr should not again be permitted to supply the sinews of war to the German military.

However, even while the proposed agreement was being drafted, groups in the United States, Britain and France, had started a campaign to make the world conscious of the potentialities of the Ruhr, one of the world's greatest industrial areas.

Situated in the British zone, the Ruhr has been under strictly military control by the United States and the United Kingdom since the (Continued on Page Two)

Egyptians Face Desperate Plight In Negev Desert

Arab Broadcasts Concede Sweep Across Desert By Israel's Forces
TEL AVIV, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Arab broadcasts conceded today that Israel's sweep across the Negev desert has left the Egyptians in a desperate plight.

The capture of Ajlun, only 3 miles from the Egyptian border in the Central Negev, was said to have left the encircled Egyptian troops literally "at the end of the Palestine road."

Beyond Ajlun, it was stressed, only goat and camel-tracks wind through the sand dunes and mud flats of the Negev desert.

A Tel Aviv military spokesman said that Negev operations are now proceeding on a reduced scale and are being held to "mopping up operations within the territory where Egyptians have no right to be."

Not Attempting Capture
It was indicated that the Israeli forces are making no attempt to capture Gaza and Faluja, where strong Egyptian garrisons are besieged.

The spokesman added that both sides are maintaining aerial activity on a reduced scale, and that the blackout of Jewish cities will be retained. He said that many prisoners and much war booty had been seized in the recent fighting.

Jewish troop commanders expressed belief that the Egyptians are beginning to realize their positions are untenable in the face of (Continued on Page Two)

QUAKE LANDSLIDE
BLOCKS HIGHWAY
IN CALIFORNIA AREA
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 29.—(INS)—A terrific landslide caused by an earthquake blocked a main highway near the California-Nevada state line today.

Al Dickson, Pasadena police radio dispatcher, said there were no reports of fatalities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—A "cold war" today hit the House un-American activities committee as members assembled for the opening Monday of the 81st Congress.

So far, no one has volunteered to serve on the committee and the leadership may have to institute a "draft" to fill the vacancies.

A Democratic spokesman revealed that out of approximately 150 requests from new and old members for committee assignment, not one was for a seat on the House's No. 1 investigating unit.

Similarly, no Republican has to date requested assignment to the committee, which will go under Democratic control January 3.

Three Vacancies
If the committee remains a nine-member group, there will be one vacancy on the Democratic side to fill and two on the Republican.

The "mortality rate" among committee members has been high. In the November 2 election, Reps. McDowell (R) Pa., and Vail (R) Ill., were defeated. Rep. Mundt (R) S. D., was elected to the Senate. Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., committee chairman, is under indictment for payroll padding.

Although an attempt may be made to abolish the committee or restrict its powers when the new House assembles next Monday, it is expected to fail. The committee received a "shot in the arm" when the so-called "pumpkin papers" were discovered.

Code Of Procedure
Rep. Hollifield (D) Calif., is urging that the committee be compelled by the House to adopt a code of procedure. However, Rep. Forand (D) R. I., came up today (Continued on Page Two)

With Testimonial
William McPeak, captain of the University of Pittsburgh football team, and one of the finest ends in the United States will be honored with a testimonial dinner in the near future.

For some weeks football fans have been urging that some mark of recognition be given McPeak for his stellar work as a Pitt player and today the work of organizing the affair started.

County Commissioner Joseph F. Travers and William A. Semler have been named as co-chairmen for the event with the date to be set at a time convenient to Mr. McPeak. The dinner will be open to all football fans.

New Reports Of Pending Peace Move In China

Nanking Sources Say China
President Gathers Leaders
For Conference

SECRET PEACE
MISSION HINTED
(BULLETIN)

NANKING, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Reliable Nanking sources said today President Chiang Kai-shek is gathering his regional commanders about him for a highly important conference and that a definite peace move already has been made.

Premier Sun Fo was reported to have named Hsu Shih-ying, former chairman of China's commission for Mongolian and Tibetan affairs, as a secret peace emissary to seek negotiations with the Communists.

Leaves Secretly
Hsu was understood to have left Nanking secretly yesterday for Shanghai on the first stage of a journey to Hong Kong, British crown colony on the South China coast.

He is reportedly under instructions from Sun Fo to contact Li Chi-shen, leader of the Kuomintang (Nationalist party) "Reformist" group, in Hong Kong.

The Li Chi-shen group was organized in Hong Kong to direct an intra-party struggle for the unseating of Generalissimo Chiang and for negotiations with the Communists to end China's civil war.

Hsu Shih-ying's mission was reported to call for a request to Li Chi-shen to serve as an intermediary between the Nationalist Nanking regime and the Communists for the opening of peace talks.

Told To Deny Reports
To maintain the secrecy of the Hsu mission, Premier Sun was understood to have ordered the government's newly appointed spokesman, Shen Chang-huan, to deny the report that Sun is sending a peace envoy to Hong Kong.

Accordingly, Shen told newsmen that if such a mission is in progress "Dr. Sun wishes to know who the envoy is."

Chiang was disclosed in reliable (Continued on Page Two)

Four Killed In Plane Crash In Detroit Area

DETROIT, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Preliminary investigation indicated today that heavy icing on its wings caused a Michigan national guard twin-engine bomber to crash, killing all four occupants.

Army authorities identified the dead as:
Capt. Charles L. Farham III, 26, of Dearborn, Mich., the pilot.
First Lt. Donald A. Streeter, of Ypsilanti, Mich., navigator.
Cpl. John Clinko, of Homestead, Pa., attached to the 104th weather group at McMill Field, Tampa, Fla.
Pfc. Donald C. Radtke, 20, Detroit, also attached to the 104th air group.

Strong Quake Shock Felt In Reno, Nevada

(BULLETIN)

RENO, Nev., Dec. 29.—(INS)—A strong earthquake in Reno early today reportedly knocked down a number of power and telephone lines in the mountains along the California-Nevada border.

The sharp shock came at 4:55 a. m. (PST). The quake lasted about 40 seconds and was accompanied by an audible roar.

(In Berkeley, Cal., University of California Seismologist Perry Byerly said the main shock which came at 5:54 (PDT) lasted 45 seconds. He declared:

"It was probably felt for only 30 seconds at its center."

(The professor said two following shocks came at 6:45 a. m. and 7:10 a. m. He said he believed the quake, recorded as about 175 miles distant from Berkeley, was centered in Plumas county, Cal.)

The sheriff's office in Reno had a report that 14 power lines were down west of Reno and that some telephone lines were affected. The wall of a building at Verdi, Nev., eight miles west of Reno, was reported to have collapsed.

The Reno sheriff had no other early reports indicating the extent of the quake.

The state highway patrol in Sacramento reported that a main highway near the California-Nevada border was blocked temporarily by a landslide a few minutes after the quake, but traffic was resumed in a short time.

Today's quake was described as much sharper than any of those in a series of quakes center in Reno last Monday night.

miles north of the 7,000-foot ice-cap plateau on which they were stranded—some of them three weeks ago today. The rescue plane flew them from the icecap to BW-8.

One suffers frostbite. Before the Western announcement was made, the air force in Washington had said only that some of the castaways would be brought to the United States, as five of them have dependents living at Blue West One, another Greenland base.

Only casualty among the 12 was a case of frostbite suffered by one man, all of whom were reported "feeling fine and in good spirits" at BW-8.

The air force tentatively set New York as the spot where the men would be landed to tell their stories and receive their welcome.

The men were lifted from the icecap by Lt. Col. Emil G. Beaudry, of South Hadley, Mass., 32-year-old veteran bomber pilot, and an expert in the operation of jet assisted takeoff or transport planes. He effected a similar rescue of nine marooned men a year ago.

Deaths Of The Day

Mrs. John Wardman

Mrs. Verna Lavina Wardman, aged 53 years, of 705 Wayne avenue, Ellwood City, died Tuesday at 5:45 p.m. at her home after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Wardman was born in Highland Heights, April 6, 1895, daughter of the late Charles Simon and Sarah Kaufman Simon, the latter of Grove City. She was a member of the First Methodist church and the Friendship Circle class. In 1923 she moved to Ellwood City from Grove City.

quarters to have summoned his regional commanders to Nanking for extremely important consultations.

It was believed the extraordinary talks would revolve around the question of whether the Generalissimo should acknowledge the government's military defeat and resign or seek to organize last-ditch Nationalist resistance south of the Communist-threatened Yangtze river.

Arrive By Plane

Four of the regional chieftains arrived by plane in Nanking yesterday in answer to Chiang's call.

They are Yen Hsi-Shan, governor of Shanxi Province; Lu Han, governor of Yunnan Province; Hu Tsung-Nan, governor of Shensi Province; and Chu Shao-Liang, commander of the "hunking" "pacification" headquarters.

Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, Nationalist commander in chief of North China; and T. V. Soong, governor of the southern Province of Kwangtung, are expected to arrive in the Redempted Nationalist capital tonight.

China's "zero hour" appeared imminent today with the Communists preparing blows against the war-weakened government forces.

The Reds were reported regrouping and building up their armies for fresh onslaughts designed to overrun east central and north China and deliver the knock-out punch to the Nationalist regime.

with the suggestion that a special group be formed to draw up a code of procedure for all legislative committees.

Forand, chairman of the House Democratic caucus, proposed that a five-member committee appointed by the speaker consider changing the rules of the House to protect the rights of witnesses questioned at congressional hearings.

Forand told newsmen that witnesses should have the right to cross-examine their accusers and to be advised by legal counsel and that no subcommittee should be permitted to make public its findings without the approval of the full committee.

Meanwhile, Rep. Rayburn (D) Tex., who will be the new House speaker, continued his round of conferences with influential party members on reorganization of the House.

A continuous stream of visitors poured into Rayburn's office following his return from Bonham, Tex., yesterday. He will see President Truman tomorrow.

war. Prior to V-E day various formulas had been advanced as to its future.

Morgenthau Proposal

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., then secretary of treasury, proposed that its industry be abolished. He would have turned Germany into an agricultural nation.

Following hostilities it was discovered that there was no way of abolishing the natural resources of iron and coal which made the Ruhr an industrial area.

Later, when the problem of European reconstruction came to the fore, it was also learned that the Ruhr's production is essential to the economy of Europe, if not to the western world.

The overwhelming realization, however, was that there must be some way of controlling the area, particularly its ability to contribute to the waging of war.

Creation of the Ruhr authority was expected to be momentarily satisfactory to all groups. However, the permanent future of the Ruhr, which will come up in a peace treaty for Germany is written, will become a major concern of many groups.

Observers in the Romulus control tower said they saw a flash when the plane hit the ground, but the wreckage did not catch fire.

The plane had passed over the Willow Run airport and Romulus about three minutes before the crash. At that time Parham made his last radio contact with the tower, and received permission to make an instrument landing in the heavy fog.

operation Mr. Truman intends to maintain with the Democratic leaders in the new Congress.

Give And Take Affair

The meeting is expected to be a give-and-take affair. It may result in some modification of the president's legislative recommendations.

Mr. Truman is bent on pressing for action on certain legislative proposals. He is certain to stress full-scale continuance of the European recovery program.

The chief executive is adamant on his civil rights program. He also wants enacted an economic stabilization plan, national health insurance and expanded social security and aid to education.

Special Message

Besides the State of the Union message, the president probably will submit to Congress next week the budget message and the annual economic report. In addition, he is planning a special message on United States foreign policy.

Work on all these state documents was well along before he went to Independence to spend the week-long Christmas holiday.

While at home, he toiled in his spare hours and had the State of the Union message virtually completed.

Mr. Truman faces a busy January. The new Congress convenes Monday and on Jan. 20 the chief

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

A showdown ideological battle between Hungary and the Vatican appeared inevitable today following the arrest of Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate in Budapest.

The church reacted quickly and it seemed likely that Pope Pius XII would issue a decree of excommunication against those responsible for charging the high prelate with crimes ranging from black market currency speculation to high treason.

Mindszenty's arrest was not entirely unexpected. But it came only a few days after leading figures in the Hungarian Catholic church had issued a statement denying government charges of "reaction" among the Catholic clergy.

It went further and declared the church's full willingness to enter into an agreement with the government covering all points at issue between them.

One stipulation. There was but one stipulation. This specified that Catholic dogma must remain unaffected and church property freed from the threat of confiscation.

Issuance of this statement at a time of high tension between church and state was regarded as the time as a highly favorable move. Mindszenty's arrest, however, again throws the situation into a pessimistic light and the outcome can not be guessed.

The Vatican always is speedy to act in behalf of any of its servants who are suspected of political persecution.

It has long been concerned with the case of Cardinal Mindszenty, who has bitterly complained of the treatment accorded him. His movements have been restricted and he has been attacked constantly in the Communist government press. On several occasions the Hungarians have prevented him from leaving the country to attend church functions.

Unique For Modern Times. The case of Cardinal Mindszenty is unique for modern times. Even the Soviet government has been cautious about its dealings with high churchmen despite the Kremlin's efforts to establish the Orthodox faith as the only acceptable one, a move that Pope Pius criticized bitterly in his Christmas Eve broadcast.

Adolf Hitler probably went further than any other dictator in anti-clerical moves. He closed down Monasteries and Nunneries. But he never moved openly against such vigorous anti-Nazi preachers as Cardinal Princes Von Galen of Berlin and Michael Cardinal Faulhaber of Munich.

The worst that happened to them was Nazi surveillance and a couple of stone-throwing incidents by Nazi fanatics. Intimidation was threatened but never dampened the courage of these two great churchmen.

By coincidence Mindszenty's arrest in one satellite country occurred just at a moment when the leader of another was making a new gesture to the western democracies.

Must Abandon Habit. Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia told parliament that unless the Cominform nations abandon their habit of violating existing trade treaties, he will be compelled to divert his country's raw material exports to the west in order that he can receive desperately-needed machinery.

The coincidence was marked by the fact that Tito had his own troubles with the church over the arrest and conviction of Archbishop Aloysius Stepinac on disloyalty charges.

Both Yugoslavia and Hungary are strongly religious nations despite the infiltration of Communism. Many observers feel that Tito's whole argument with the Cominform stems from the deep religiosity of his Croats, Serbs, and Slovenes, the most devout people in the world.

The Communist leaders of Hungary apparently feel that the persistence of their assaults against Mindszenty's character have created a sufficiently lasting impression among the people that they can risk their present aggressive step.

There is reason for suspecting, however, that they may live deeply to regret this affront to a Catholic church that is waxing, not waning, in temporal power.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

A TRAINING PROBLEM FOR MOTHERS

Perhaps no other problem is more trying to the mother of the child from one to two or three than that of cultivating him good toilet habits. While some mothers can accomplish this training amazingly early, many mothers find their training too soon. Their failures vex and humiliate them that they have a needless amount of worry and their success may be badly delayed.

What happens so many young mothers is that they compare their progress unfavorably with other mothers who brag about their own early successes; and a lot of mothers delight in lording it over other mothers about such matters.

Remember. Young mothers. Just remember your baby is your baby. Let other people mind their own business. Before you begin on this training problem think through your personal resources. Consider when you can carry through patiently and consistently, taking into account the probable cooperation or interference by other adult members of the family. Keep in mind that you will get best way to help your little tyke to make the necessary connections in his mind and body, with the most frequent and greatest degree of satisfaction and the least annoyance to him. Remember, too, that the less you allow yourself to be annoyed by his accidents or failures and the more you can show pleasure over his successes the better his cooperation will be.

Please remember two key factors: learning his rhythm of voiding and evacuating and getting him always on the vessel at the right time. Be happy when he tells you but don't wait at him. "Why didn't you tell Mother?" Always show strong approval by gentle, tender words and loving pats when he does "perform." Aim to get him to stay on the nursery chair long enough for success. It should be a comfortable seat, low and with a toilet seat with a comfortable footrest to fit over the adult seat. It is fine also to have steps leading thereto for the tot to climb and thus take care of himself. The more you can appeal to his self-reliance, the better, of course.

Now you best win the tot's cooperation at toilet training if you also have won his cooperation in the many other normal situations about the home. Nothing happens singly. To this end you have to avoid stubbornness and win cooperation in the youngster. (My bulletin "Stubbornness" may be held in a stamped envelope.) If the child is old as twenty months or two years, in spite of all your persuasive efforts, refuses to sit long enough on the nursery chair, when you place him there consistently at the proper times, you should not hold him there against his resistance, since he hardly will "perform" while angry. Yet you will realize that when you need to give him effective training elsewhere and at other times in the meaning of "No." Once this is accomplished he will accept "No" as final and without resistance while on the nursery chair. Then a quiet "No" should suffice.

If the child once well-trained reverts to where he was before the training, just restrain him as if from the beginning. It won't take so long as before if you can manage yourself well. (My bulletins, "Teaching Toilet Habits" and "Some Psychology of Bed-wetting," may be had in stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.)

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
 (City International News Service)

This was a year of groping for security. Even the people who elected Harry Truman in November to solve their problems had turned to the Shmoo by year's end.

And what a year for us with Dewey finishing second, the Glants finishing fifth and Mrs. Harrison Williams finishing seventh!

A candidate may stir up his party or a ball club shake up its team but how does a seventh-place fashion winner alert her dressmakers for a pennant dash in '49?

Anyway it was a fantastic year in which comedians insured their programs against high jackpots but networks forgot to insure their comedians against hi-jacking.

But 1948 will go down in history as the year in which television came home without a beer breath.

And it will be long remembered as the year in which grand juries took a legal interest in the pumpkin crop.

"Socko-Analysis"

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Hoover Report Has Handicaps

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Something has gone wrong with the time machine. A man named Dewey was supposed to be starting just about now to make over the government in Washington, and instead the name of Herbert Hoover is in the front-page headlines.

As with everything he has done, the report of the Hoover Commission on the reorganization of the government will be a work of monumental thoroughness. That, as a matter of fact, may be one of its handicaps.

The final report will be based on the studies made by the task forces assigned to analyze individual phases of operation Washington. These studies are voluminous in scope and often sweeping in their proposed changes.

It was obvious, of course, that those who initiated the Hoover Commission and pushed the authorization through Congress contemplated a change in administration in January. Such a change, with top personnel going out and new men coming in, would have made it much easier to bring about necessary reforms.

Reforms Are Needed. There can be no doubt that reforms are needed in the lush and undisciplined growth of government. Waste and duplication have gone along with the greatly expanded functions of the Federal Government.

But whether the essential reforms can be accomplished by drawing up a vast blueprint—albeit inclusive and arbitrary—is a question. And it is just here that the personality and predictions of the chairman of the commission enter in.

Next year it will be 16 years since Herbert Hoover rode down Pennsylvania avenue, a bitterly disillusioned and unhappy man beside his successor, Franklin D. Roosevelt. While the rancor of the era has passed, thanks partly to the friendly relationship established by President Truman, Hoover is basically unchanged.

That is the opinion of certain of the able technicians who are putting the final report together. As they see him at close range, Hoover, for all his expertise in government, has limitations of temperament and outlook that may limit the usefulness of the recommendations.

Differences Today. To begin with, Hoover seems to feel that government today is just the same as it was when he was president. In reality, the differences are not those merely of degree but of kind. The whole structure of Social Security, labor legislation and public-power development has grown up since Hoover's day.

Allied with this is the Hoover conviction that a New Dealer is a pretty nefarious kind of being. While this is a prejudice shared by many of Hoover's generation, and others, a majority of voters have repeatedly demonstrated, as they

The World and the Mud Puddles

BEEN DEPRESSED BEFORE

With a Democratic Congress—House and Senate, together with a Democrat for President, it promises anything but better things for the future. If the President makes good his policies, the future of this nation seems rather dark.

The conservative citizens of Great Britain view their socialist regime in the same light but they have viewed events within the British Empire for the last one hundred fifty years with the same feeling. At the end of the eighteenth century, William Pitt, a very brilliant Prime Minister of the British Empire, said:

"There is scarcely anything around us but ruin and despair." Things had not changed in the Empire very much, for in the early 1800's, Wilberforce, a very helpful citizen of Great Britain, gave voice to the same idea when he said:

"I dare not marry, the future is so dark and unsettled." (Continued on Next Page)

Disloyalty And Law

(By Holmes Alexander)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 29.—"If the law supposes that," said Mr. Bumble in Dickens' "Oliver Twist," "the law is an ass, an idiot." The law, as interpreted by the Supreme Court (Schneiderman vs. U. S.), "supposes" that a man can be an avowed Communist, adhere to the Party line and still be "attached" to the principles of the American Constitution. This was roughly speaking, the say-so of Justices Murphy, Black, Douglas, Reed and Rutledge in 1943. But Chief Justice Stone blasted the majority opinion as follows:

"It would be little short of preposterous to assert that vigorous aid, knowingly given (the Communist Party) is compatible with attachment to the principles of the Constitution."

Many Americans will agree with Stone that it is "preposterous" to say that a sworn enemy of the country can be simultaneously a loyal citizen. Quite a few laymen will go along with Dickens and say that the idea is asinine and idiotic. But let us read a little deeper. The majority opinion went on to say:

"Whatever attitude we may individually hold toward persons and organizations that believe in or advocate extensive changes in our existing order, it should be our desire and concern at all times to uphold the right of free discussion and free thinking. To neglect this duty . . . would be ironical indeed."

Most Americans will say amen to these sentiments too. There is nothing preposterous, asinine or idiotic about them. So here we have the seemingly immovable roadblock which stands athwart the desire of the Congress to protect the country from disloyal Communists. It is the old conflict, which exists in private lives as well as in public policy, between idealism and self-interest, between the generalities and the specifics of trying to live nobly amid imperfect circumstances.

President Truman has now run smack up against this set of paradoxes. He said in his pre-holiday press conference that his Administration would seek ways to strengthen the disloyalty laws. But he confessed in the next breath that this was tough to do without violating the Bill of Rights.

Calls For Court-Making. But Mr. Truman must know that the problem calls for Court-making and not law-making. The books are spilling over with laws against spying, sedition, anarchy, mutiny and who-knows-what Congress proposes, but the Supreme Court deposes. Rather today, it is more correct to say that the deposing is done by men named Vinson, Burton, Rutledge, Jackson, Murphy, Douglas, Frankfurter, Reed and Black. Not less than seven times prior to 1938 a non-Roosevelt Court reached opposite opinions from those which prevailed in the Schneiderman case. Many other times in past history the Court was able to get by the roadblock of the Bill of Rights and to convict men who were obviously thumbing their noses at the law. Three samples will suffice for our purposes:

In 1919 the Court decided that a man named Abrams and four other Bolsheviks could not lawfully advocate protest-strikes against our Anti-Russian policy.

In 1920 the Court ruled that a man named Gilbert had violated the sedition laws by advocating resistance to our pro-British policy.

In 1925 the Court upheld the conviction of a man named Gitlow under statutes against criminal anarchy.

May Not All Be Wise. We need not insist that these cases were all justly and wisely decided. The decision in every case was 7-2, with Justices Holmes and Brandeis in liberal dissent. Perhaps the Court, in those days was as out of balance on the conservative side as it now is in the other direction. Possibly America in the 1920's was not as free and secure a nation as it is now. But the point I'm pressing is that we have plenty of laws for any Supreme Court which may very well be that present Court has awareness of the times. It was put together by Mr. Roosevelt with an eye to aiding the progress of the New Deal. It may not be the proper instrument for the Tru Deal's multiple problems in domestic and foreign affairs.

The possible obsolescence of the Court is given point by two facts of the day. One is that a Roosevelt-appointed Justice is gravely ill, has been habitually absent from his seat and may soon create a vacancy. The other fact is that Chief Justice Vinson or Justice Douglas may be lifted from the bench for a place in the Truman Cabinet.

If the President gets two or more chances to name new Justices, he could forget about looking for new disloyalty laws. He could, like Mr. Roosevelt, redress the balance of the Court to meet the most besetting problem of our day.

Looking At Life

By ERIC BRANDIS

Are you a millionaire? No? You ought to be ashamed of yourself! Do you have to work for a living? Phew!

I just got through studying the "Winter Vacations" section of yesterday's New York Times, according to which practically everybody who is anybody at all in these United States of ours will be anywhere this winter except at his desk, his work bench or in her own kitchen.

As you know, there is a terrific housing shortage all over the country. We read that married people live in quonset huts, in city halls, in railroad stations and some of them even with their in-laws.

But who said "housing shortage"? According to a survey just made, during the past few months there has been $23,000,000 worth of new buildings in Miami Beach alone, among them seventeen hotels with more than 2,000 rooms.

Throughout the state of Florida, 650 new motor courts and 255 new hotels have been erected, bringing the state's total to 1,550 hotels and 1,800 motor courts.

Arizona reports a similar building boom and so does Texas. There will be many new hotels, motor courts, apartments and cottages wherever there are warmth, sunshine—and money to spend.

The railroad companies advertise new trains with ever more comforts and greater luxuries. The airlines will take you faster and higher wherever you want to go. The steamship lines will give you new luxuries, more choices of places to go.

I am just a little woozy after going through that travel section. Lovely creatures in scanty bathing suits. Palm trees, yachts, coral islands, people leisurely dining in sumptuous cafes, sun-drenched beaches peopled with prosperous and happy looking men and women.

And those headlines: . . . guess they are ALL going to Florida! "Sapphire Blue Sea." "You're only hours away by clipper from the summer sunshine of the tropics!"

"A warmer welcome than ever this season. Come to Cuba, the holiday isle." "Come to the sun, the sun, the desert—and old Mexico."

It's awfully hard to plan. So many wonderful things awaiting you and me. What shall it be? California? Arizona? Bermuda?

Excuse me. My wife is calling. We are going out to buy a new snow shovel and some rock salt. (Copyright, 1948, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Music Groups At Rotary Meeting

Special Program At New Wilmington Meeting; Town News Notes

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Dec. 29.—Music groups from the high school under the direction of Mrs. Lalla Mack entertained members of the Rotary club at their dinner meeting Monday evening. Vocal solos were rendered by William Barbe and Betty Jane Maughan. Martha Reaney played a saxophone solo. Each of the three was accompanied at the piano by Eleanor Burns. Numbers were also rendered by the girls' ensemble, the girls' sextet and the girls' trio. They were accompanied by Janet Barkley. President Norman Igo presided.

About 70 attended the Christmas party of the American Legion Monday evening at College Hall. Music for dancing was furnished by "Shorty" Sewall's orchestra. Cards and bingo also entertained the guests. Refreshments were served.

The "Holiday Hop" sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association will be held Wednesday evening at College Hall.

Mrs. Hazel Clark and Miss Gladys Shott were in charge of arrangements for the Christmas party of their bridge club Monday evening at the Tavern. There was an exchange of presents. Ten members were present. The next meeting will be held January 22 at the home of Miss Patricia Jones.

Rev. John Orr, acting president of Westminster college, will preach next Sunday evening in the United Presbyterian church in the opening service of the Week of Prayer program which will continue through the week.

Services will be held each evening in the U.P. church with the various pastors taking turns delivering the sermon. Dr. James B. Cummings, a missionary to India, will preach at the closing service Friday evening.

Miss Gladys Shott, a teacher at Oakmont, Pa., is spending the Christmas vacation here.

Rita Hayworth And Prince Make Stop In London

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Movie actress Rita Hayworth and Prince Aly Khan secluded themselves today in exclusive Ritz Hotel.

The couple arrived in the Prince's private plane from Ireland. Flying newsmen, they took separate autos from the airport, and then amazed their pursuers by arriving at the hotel in the same car.

Rita and Aly dashed through the hotel lobby so hurriedly that Miss Hayworth's four-year-old daughter, Rebecca Welles, stumbled but she was quickly picked up by the Prince and rushed to the elevator. The couple left instructions not to be disturbed.

The titian-haired film actress and the son of the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan landed in London by accident. They were kept by bad weather from flying on to Paris.

Lord Gray, in 1810 is quoted as saying: "Everything is tending toward a convulsion."
And the views of the Duke of Wellington who was credited with winning the Battle of Waterloo, on his deathbed thirty-five years later, made this statement:
Spared Seeing Rome
"Thank God, I shall be spared from seeing the consummation of ruin that is gathering about us."
That was pretty bad, and it only intensified the statement made by Disraeli, two years earlier—in 1840: he who accomplished the building of the Suez Canal. He said:
"In industry, commerce, and agriculture, there is no hope."
And Lord Shaftesbury, another prominent Victorian statesman, said in 1868:
"Nothing could save the British Empire from shipwreck."
Yet the British Empire not only survived all of them, but grew still more powerful. It survived all the vicissitudes of William, the Norman, who won the Battle of Hastings in 1066, and in the nine centuries following has grown stronger both in lands and money—an Empire on which the sun never sets. And now after two fierce wars with the Germans, the majority of the people of Great Britain have turned their backs on the Conservative Government and gone over to the Socialists, body, soul and britches. At the present time many Britons are talking just as did Pitt and Disraeli.

So it is up to the citizens of the United States to show some spirit and make up their minds that they too shall not perish from the earth.

Princess Elizabeth At Radio Broadcast

LONDON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—London society welcomed today the return to the capital's night life of Princess Elizabeth.

The Princess, dressed in a fur coat and looking fit, made her first evening appearance outside Buckingham Palace since the birth of her son. She visited a radio broadcast at the Paris Cinema in London, accompanied by Queen Elizabeth, Princess Margaret and Prince Philip.

The royal party's biggest laugh came at the end of the show when comedian Richard Murdoch shouted "Good Old Charlie" as a greeting to be taken back to the palace for the slumbering infant Prince.

It was estimated that in 1967, after the American Civil War had ended, 1800 persons left the United States for South America in the first six months of that year. Most of them settled in a few colonies in Brazil.

U. N. Awaiting Dutch Response To Ultimatum

Immediate Release Of Cap- tured Indonesian Lead- ers Is Demanded

PARIS, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The Security Council considered a "mild" British resolution calling for a Palestine cease-fire today and awaited Dutch response to its ultimatum calling for immediate release of captured Indonesian leaders.

Britain, although blaming Israel for the latest renewal of Holy Land warfare, asked merely that the Nov. 4 resolution calling on the Jews to yield their Negev gains be implemented.

The "teeth" of last month's resolution were pulled at U. S. insistence when the threat of sanctions was dropped. British Delegate Harold Bealey made no move to restore it, but called for a meeting of the seven-power Palestine sub-committee at Lake Success on Jan. 6 to report on the situation.

Russia backs Move
Russia announced it will back the British move, while the U. S. and Canadian delegates awaited instructions from their governments.

Meanwhile, the council hoped for Dutch compliance with its orders yesterday that Indonesian leaders be released. Deadline for the release was this morning, but there was no indication of the Dutch attitude.

The Netherlands bluntly refused to obey the council's Christmas Eve cease-fire order, and insufficient backing of a sterner resolution has left that issue in abeyance. It was believed possible that the Dutch may once again refuse to abide by the council demand until their "police action" in Java and Sumatra has assured control of Republican areas.

But the U. S. and Britain still are on record with a demand that the Dutch explain their attitude toward the ignored cease-fire resolution. Netherlands Representative Dr. J. H. Van Royen told the council yesterday that the Chiefs of the Indonesian Republic are not imprisoned but merely "in protective custody." He also objected to the implied condemnation of Holland contained in the resolution.

Nevertheless, the council voted the ultimatum, sponsored by China, by 8 to 0, one more than necessary, with three nations abstaining.

BICYCLE LICENSE PREVENTS THEFTS

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 29.—Chief of Police W. R. Kennedy said the city bicycle licensing ordinance has paid off. An ordinance was passed and became effective September 1, requiring all youthful owners to register their vehicles with police and affix license tags at 50 cents each.

Since that time three were stolen and two of them recovered. Before September 1 over 20 thefts monthly was the average with 40 per cent in recoveries. Nearly 4,000 are registered.

Cardinal's Arrest In Hungary Is 'Sickening Sham'

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Acting Secretary of State Lovett today denounced the arrest by the Hungarian government of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty as a sickening sham.

Speaking with considerable indignation, Lovett told a news conference that the charges of espionage lodged against the Roman Catholic prelate were probably false.

He said that it must affect others similarly to think that this sort of thing can go on. It also shows, he continued, that it is the countries where this type of thing is going on which prevents the achievement of peace and makes it a hope instead of a reality.

Lovett said the arrest of the Cardinal completes an unhappy chain of events and shows the attitude of the Hungarian government to the basic freedoms.

In Hungary, he continued, it stands out as one of a long series of repressive measures against personal freedom—human freedom and now with religious freedom the cycle reaches a climax.

Fay Emerson Roosevelt May Be Questioned

May Be Asked Officially For Explanation Of Wrist Slashing Is Report

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 29.—(INS)—Actress Fay Emerson Roosevelt may be asked officially to explain how she slashed her wrist with a razor if her husband, Elliott, does not give a satisfactory account of the episode.

Dutchess County District Attorney W. Vincent Grady said in Poughkeepsie that he might even question the nine other guests—including Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr.—who reportedly were in the couple's 10-room Hyde Park "dream house" early Sunday when Fay said she cut herself reaching for an aspirin.

The county sheriff's office maintains the cutting, which required eight stitches in her left wrist, was deliberate.

Elliott, with his lawyer, was scheduled to appear in Grady's office today.

General Probe
Grady also intimated that the questioning might mushroom into a general interrogation of the Roosevelt family if he doesn't get the real story of the incident today.

A stormy session was expected when Roosevelt confronts District Attorney W. Vincent Grady today.

The second son of the late President Roosevelt at the same time vowed to "get to the bottom" of what he termed a malicious report that his wife purposely slashed her wrist.

Grady said yesterday that he may question "any and all members" of the Roosevelt family who were present at the Yuletide gathering.

Both Elliott and Fay indignantly denied that she intentionally cut her wrist.

The statuesque 31-year-old actress claimed she was being "branded" by the stories and said she accidentally inflicted the wounds when she reached into a medicine cabinet for some aspirin. Poughkeepsie sheriff Fred C. Close reported that Fay "cut her wrist with a razor blade following a family disagreement."

Nine Former Jap Officers To Be Hanged

Sentenced To Death For Behaving 33 Captured B-29 Airmen In War

YOKOHAMA, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Nine former Japanese officers, including three generals, were sentenced today to death on the gallows for behaving 33 captured American B-29 airmen in the closing days of the war.

Sixteen other erstwhile Japanese officers were sentenced to serve terms ranging from five years to life at hard labor.

All were convicted in Yokohama of behaving the American flyers after using some of the prisoners as live bayonet dummies in reprisal for the Hiroshima and Nagasaki atomic bombings.

Drafting Appeal From Conviction Of Mrs. Ybarbo

MARBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Defense Counsel Stanley Gaines drafted an appeal today from the conviction and 20-year sentence of Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo for the slaying of her G. I. husband last September.

Gaines said the first step will be an appeal to a higher U. S. court at Nuernberg. If necessary, he added, he will carry the fight to the U. S. supreme court.

The 23-year-old brunette mother from Malden, Mass., was sentenced under both German and American law by a three-judge American military court. The two 20-year sentences are concurrent.

It was the first murder trial of an American woman in occupied Germany. From the outset, defense counsel challenged the legality of the trial.

Part Of U.S. Troops To Leave Korea

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The Army plans to pull the Seventh Infantry division out of Korea, leaving only one other division—the Sixth—and service troops.

The Army announced that the Seventh would be sent to Japan to replace the 11th Airborne Division, which is scheduled for return to the United States.

Withdrawal of the Seventh Division results from establishment of the South Korean government, recognized by the United Nations as the only legal government in the country. A Communist regime in North Korea was not recognized by the UN.

The UN also urged both the U. S. and Russia to withdraw occupation troops as soon as possible. Russia previously announced withdrawal, but left a large, Communist-controlled native army in North Korea.

Pastors Notice

Due to the fact that Saturday is New Year's Day, and there will be no issue of The News, all notices for Sunday church services must reach The News office before noon, Thursday, in order to be printed in Friday edition.

PERSONALS

Mrs. S. L. Nixon, 34 Ellis Way, who fell and broke her arm at her home, Christmas day, is recuperating there following treatment at the office of a physician.

Miss Jane Bryan has returned to the Marine Institute, Washington, D. C., after spending the Christmas holiday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Elder Bryan, of 914 Morton street.

A Quaker meeting house built in York in 1765, is still used for Sunday services.

Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding

Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Snodgrass of East Brook have returned from West Middlesex, where they attended the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Edburn of West Middlesex, held Tuesday evening in the West Middlesex U. P. church.

Open church was observed with approximately 200 in attendance for the event. A fine program of singing and speaking took place with a lunch served by the women of the church. Many gifts were received by the celebrants.

Mr. and Mrs. Edburn were married on December 28, 1899 in the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Huff, R. D. 1, West Middlesex, by Rev. J. R. Galley of New Bedford. The family includes five children, 14 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

W. C. T. U. and L. T. L.

Wayne Y. T. C. Seventeen members of the Wayne Youth Temperance council brought cheer to shut-ins during a Christmas Caroling party, December 20, in the Wayne Township area.

Following the outdoor singing, the group assembled in the home of their counsellor, Mrs. Wendell Shoemaker, of the Ellwood-New Castle road where the group enjoyed a variety of games under the leadership of Miss Mary Jane Meehan. The young people then gathered around a prettily decorated Christmas tree for drawing gifts from a grab bag.

Miss Norma Weingartner and Miss Sally Meehan assisted Mrs. Shoemaker in serving delicious refreshments.

The next meeting will be in the home of Norma Weingartner, on the Ellwood-New Castle road.

Wayne W. C. T. U. A delightful Christmas program was enjoyed at the December meeting of the Wayne W. C. T. U., at the home of Mrs. Claire Boyer, on the Ellwood-New Castle road.

Carol singing and the Christmas story were presented after which the devotional leader, Mrs. Floyd Worrell presented the reading, "Crowded Out."

The program opened with a reading of "A Star is Born," by Mrs. Harold Sloss to background music of carols. After Doris Sloss and Betty Poholsky sang "Silent Night," the history of the world's loved carol was read by Mrs. Wendell Shoemaker. While the girls sang "Away in a Manger" the history of Christmas in other lands was presented, with Bavaria, China, Korea and Judea, among others, and a candle was lighted for each country. The story of the program was presented by candlelight. Mrs. Sloss gave the history of Christmas in this country. "Ways of Carrying Christmas Love and Good-Will Throughout the New Year" were presented by Mrs. George McQuiston, Mrs. Claire Boyer, Mrs. Harry Houk, Mrs. William Johnson, Miss Sally Johnson, Miss Doris Sloss and Miss Betty Poholsky. The program closed with a "Prayer for the New Year" by Mrs. Victor Markle.

Members were pleased to learn from the county treasurer, Mrs. Harry Glover, that the Wayne Union was the first in the county to qualify as a hold-fast union. Reservations for the Loyalty Luncheon, to be January 20, at the Epworth Methodist church in New Castle, must be made with the president, by January 14.

Baskets of fruit for eight shut-ins were packed and distributed and Christmas greetings were sent to two members, Mrs. Thomas Berger, in California, and Mrs. Thomas Rodgers, in Arkansas. The group received a box of candy from Mrs. Rodgers. Letters of appreciation were received from the veterans at Deshon hospital for Christmas cards and from "Mother Moore" in Philadelphia, for her Christmas gift.

An exchange of gifts was followed by a delicious lunch served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Shoemaker.

Special guests were Mrs. George McQuiston, Miss Sally Johnson, Miss Doris Sloss and Miss Betty Poholsky. Mrs. Floyd Worrell, of the New Castle road, will be hostess to the group, January 18, at which time Mrs. Harry Houk will be devotional leader and Mrs. H. L. Coulter as program director.

Fortification Of Alaska Urged

New Congress Will Be Asked To Go All Out On Program

OTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Central Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The new Congress will be asked to go "all out" on fortification of Alaska, considered by most military men the weakest point in the Western Hemisphere defense system.

The legislators will be asked to appropriate perhaps as much as one billion dollars to make the northern outpost of the continent invulnerable to attack from over the top of the world.

A bill is expected to be introduced by Reps. Charles J. Kersten (R), Wisconsin, and O. C. Fisher (D), Texas. Both are members of the House subcommittee on military appropriations.

Kersten and Fisher, on a recent inspection of the so-called Alaskan defenses, saw enough to convince them the United States too long has overlooked this pathway of invasion into the Western Hemisphere. In addition to what they saw they were told by authoritative sources that:

Communists are infiltrating the Eskimos; Russian patrol planes fly over American bases; Russians are taking terrain photographs of the area; labor unions, dominated by Communists, will not unload American Army shipments.

Weak Voice
The harassed Voice of America, which runs afoul of Capitol Hill criticism when it dares too deeply in political ideas, now is about to get some criticism because its output is too mild.

In a recent speech Senator Ralph Flanders (R), Vermont, set the stage for this attack from a new direction. He recounted the story of an escapee from Iron Curtain-land who risked his neck to join anti-Communist friends in listening to a short-wave set hidden in a barn.

What the man risked his life to hear from the Voice, Flanders said, was a meeting of a Los Angeles Parent-Teachers Association and the subject discussed was whether or not the school gym should have a new floor.

Flanders exploded. He called the broadcast a "grievous disappointment" to the courageous patriots and declared "they should have stronger meat."

He said the "stronger meat" should be truthful news of world events that affect the position and future hopes of captive friends of democracy.

Politics' Prodigal Sons
The Democratic national committee is in a forgiving mood about the States Rights Democrats who supported the presidential candidacy of Gov. J. Strom Thurmond.

Friends of Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath say he does not now begrudge Thurmond the 38 electoral votes he took from President Truman.

The Democratic strategy now is to heal wounds within the party, in view of the legislative program the president will give Congress.

No compromise on civil rights will be brooked by Mr. Truman. This is the issue that spawned the States Righters. However, the administration needs the votes of the southern Democrats in passing other phases of its legislative program.

Thus, the civil rights issue will be settled on the floor of the Senate and House.

Hoodooed Steamship Line
There is a certain steamship line which must be convinced now that Congressmen are hoodoos. This line piles between the United States and Panama.

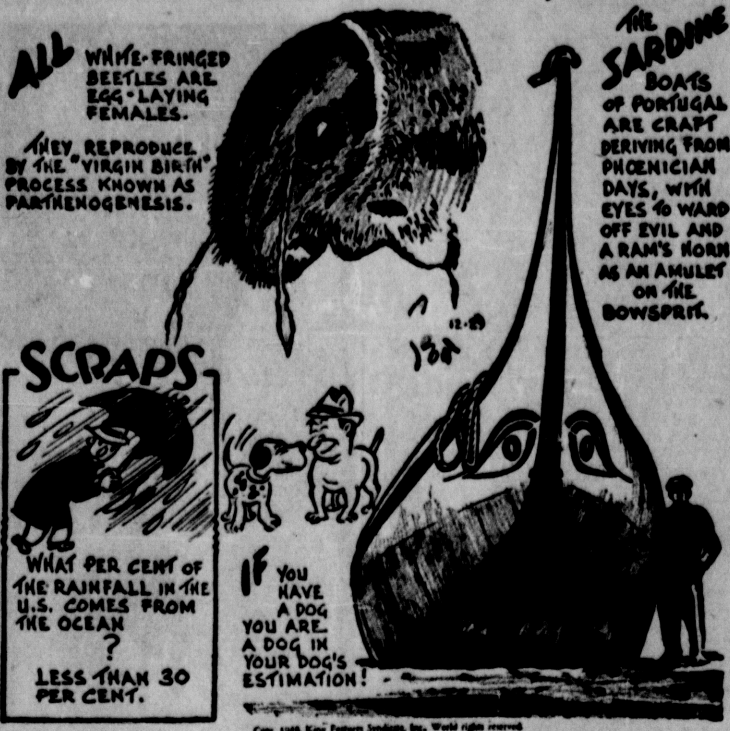

One of its recent passengers was Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R) New Jersey. Thomas suffered a stomach hemorrhage and Army planes had to "bombard" the ship with blood plasma.

No sooner had things quieted down than Rep. Richard M. Nixon (R), California, decided to go to Panama.

Once again the ship was "bombarded"—this time by radio communications, or "rush," which culminated in a Coast Guard plane landing alongside and taking the congressman off. He was needed for a committee hearing in Washington.

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

IN THE OPEN

As the gray twilight of Christmas Eve stole quietly across the hills the countryman walked out with the day's accumulation of papers to the trash burner behind the house. Shutting in the Yule lights and the radioed carols from many lands, he moved slowly through the strange after-glow of the brooding hills locked up for the night. Soon the dancing flames sent searching shadows among the trees and from the far hillside came the quivering, tremulous notes of a little screech owl.

The night closed in suddenly, isolating the countryman there beside the fire while the owl complained at intervals. In those few rare moments the tremendous lift of the Christmas Story was far more real than in all the inspired heart-stirrings of the music and the tinselled slummers indoors.

December Sky-Show
Later in the night a breeze hunted out the scudding clouds high over head and sent them flying beyond the horizon. Against this fresh-scrubbed background the magnificent December sky-show wheeled across, even as on that joyous night nearly two thousand years ago. The countryman looked up at mighty Orion, and wondered how many countless years in the Book of Days the giant hunter has patiently stalked the game trails of the sky.

Christmas Day brought a pot-pourri of weather which kept the countryman close by his fireside. A spanking breeze put the countryside in turmoil, alternating short spells of brilliant sunlight, with dark driving spates of whirling snow. Even the cheerful chickadees sit close on these blustery days. The wise wayfarer hangs up his boots and walking stick and bides his time. One necessary trip takes him out with the birds' Christmas dinner—a heaping portion of sunflower seeds, corn and some leftovers from the garden packets.

Down To Five Above
The next night brought the cold stillness which drives the congealing frost deep below the sod and produces startling explosions in the midnight timberlands. The thermometer groped low on the register and finally halted at five above. At this point the morning sun accepted the challenge and by noon the mercury was somewhere in the low twenties.

Full of cold turkey and left over "stuffin'" the countryman bundles up and heads for the tangles behind the house. Song sparrows are scolding in the fencerow and a sharp alarm note fools him for a time, until a hen pheasant clatters up from the weeds and drops down a few rods farther on. A light coating of snow covers the frozen marshes. Here are the tracks of foraging pheasants, rabbits, sparrows, field mice, a squirrel and a prowling house cat.

The countryman walks out to the bank of the valley stream, and listens to the sibilant whispering of the soft ice riding the rips past some jutting boulders. The tall sycamores stand close by the water, crowded with "buttonballs" which will persist well into the winter.

The meandering path leads through a little grove of dogwood trees, their fat buds already packed with the promise of showy bloom next April. The countryman notes a redbud or two on a bank hard by the dogwoods and cannot help but ponder the legends which have grown up around the little dogwood and the redbud "Judas" tree.

Even though more appropriate to the Easter season, these bits of legendary lore may well be retold at Christmas. It is said that at the time of the crucifixion the dogwood grew as tall and massive as the oak. Its wood was chosen for the timber of the cross. This cruel usage so distressed the tree that the Nazarene promised it: "Never again will the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used for a cross."

"Henceforth it shall be slender and bent and twisted, and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross—two long petals and two short petals, and in the center of the outer edge of each petal there will be nailprints, brown with rust and stained with blood. And in the center of the flower there shall be an image of the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember it was upon a dogwood tree that I was crucified."

The redbud growing hard by the dogwood grove has for centuries been known as the Judas tree, for the legend has it that this was the tree on which Judas Iscariot hanged himself. The red blossoms which appear along the leafless twigs in early Spring have been likened to the drops of blood exuding from the slain Christ's wounds.

No matter what the weather, Christmas is always a stirring season to the countryman. Now the Winter solstice is past and the returning sun already bears promise of another Spring. SASSY FRASS

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

LATE HOURS AND THE YOUNG FOLKS

Not too many years ago, teenagers who came home after midnight were considered to have been in some pretty serious mischief. Parents made a big issue of the matter. Neighbors gossiped. The whole family worried. Today, in most communities, the situation has changed. There's a different attitude.

Yet many of us still worry. We carry over from an earlier day the conviction that youngsters should be home before we go to bed. We worry and fret. Sometimes we insist that our youngsters leave parties before the others do.

If we have done a good job of raising our young people, if we have given them opportunities to make decisions, to stand on their own feet increasingly, by the time they are in their mid-teens we ought to be able to trust them. If we do, they will be willing to "play the game" with us. They'll phone if they are delayed beyond the hour when they expected to return. They'll be reasonable about over-many late hours and they'll continue to talk over with us what has happened with us.

But if we insist on the hours of our youth we can expect only unpleasantness, unhappiness and perhaps defiance.

Morse To Demand Curb On Filibuster

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Senator Wayne L. Morse (R) Ore., served notice today that he intended to introduce anti-filibuster legislation immediately after the Senate convenes on January 3.

He said his proposed bill would change Senate rules to make the filing of a cloture motion—limitation of debate—applicable to all business of the Senate.

At present, cloture can be invoked only against legislation itself and not against the proposal to take it up. Southern senators have used this device to prevent most civil rights legislation from reaching the Senate floor.

Morse said that under his bill a motion for cloture could be filled by a majority vote.

Last Of Four Jail Fugitives Now Captured

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 29.—(INS)—Altoona Police Chief Vaul E. Rouzer said the last of four fugitives who escaped the Blair county jail in Hollidaysburg Nov. 20, had been captured in Brownsville, Tenn.

Rouzer said Brownsville police picked up Robert E. Lott, 24, of Altoona, who was driving a car stolen in Clarksville, Miss.

Blair County District Attorney J. Calvin Land will institute extradition proceedings immediately, although Brownsville police said Lott had waived extradition to Clarksville on the stolen car charge.

Two of the fugitives, Elwood C. Burger, 20, of Altoona and Robert

E. Maloney, 24, of Morris Run, Pa., were captured ten days ago in Lubbock, Tex. They were extradited to Tulsa, Okla., on robbery charges.

The fourth escapee, Sewell W. Rouzer, 39, of Altoona was sentenced last week to serve 12 to 26 years in Western Penitentiary. He had been captured in East Stroudsburg, Pa., five days after the prison break.

Fourteen Persons Held Prisoner With Seized Cardinal

BUDAPEST, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Hungarian officials disclosed today that 14 persons are held with Josef Cardinal Mindszenty in connection with an alleged plot to restore the Hapsburg monarchy. Officials of the Communist-dominated regime also involved an American in the plot, which they hinted had United States backing.

The American, identified only as "Mr. Fox," is said to be a representative of the National Catholic Welfare Council, reportedly returned to the U. S. several months ago. Meanwhile, it was expected that the government will set a date quickly for the trial of the Cardinal, who has alleged to have confessed his guilt.

IN COURT HOUSE

That old idea that Leap Year brings more weddings than the other three years of the quartet took a beating this year.

With almost 12 months gone in the year when every bachelor was in season for the unmarried maids, the total marriage licenses issued in the Prothonotary's office shows a decline from 1947.

During 1948 thus far there have been 1281 licenses issued. In 1947 there were 1522 issued, a drop of 241.

It may be that the eligible single girls for the most part are working, or not interested, or don't want a silk dress. Or it could be that Dan Cupid is on a forty-hour week.

Whatever the reason, there's the answer. A considerable sag in 1948, a Leap Year seems to indicate that women are not taking advantage of their opportunities these days.

Atomic Power Unit

Laboratory Planned In Pittsburgh Area

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Plans were underway today for construction in the Pittsburgh district for a laboratory for creation of an experimental atomic power unit for driving naval vessels.

The Chicago operations office of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission has contracted with the Westinghouse Electric Corp. for construction of the plant and development of the first "atom engine" designed for a specific purpose.

Charles H. Weaver, youthful head of the recently formed Westinghouse Atom Power Division, said that organization work is in progress and that construction of the laboratory will begin within a few months.

He said that some 600 persons will be employed on the project, mostly scientists and engineers, who hope to develop a "nuclear reactor" to meet requirements of the navy for an atomic unit to drive naval vessels.

Firestone POLAR GRIP* TIRE TREADS

Here's the Secret of the Added Traction

Fires with Polar Grip Treads have a rough, abrasive surface which gives millions of additional gripping edges that take hold and enable the motorist to climb icy hills and travel with safety on ice and snow.

An abrasive rubber for winterizing smooth tires... new and absolutely amazing! Gives instant traction on wet, icy, slippery roads, eliminates skidding, gives a safety you've never had before without the bother and mess of putting on chains. Firestone Polar Grip Treads have been thoroughly tested on icy city hills and mountainous highways. Only Firestone has Polar Grip Treads... drive in today.

Blood Chairman Offers Details On Donor Plan

Dr. Wilbur Flannery Predicts Seventy-Five Pints Monthly Will Supply Community

Participation in the Blood Donor program of the American Red Cross by the Lawrence County chapter fulfills a community need according to Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, chairman of the blood committee for the local chapter.

Lives are being saved in every corner of the nation by blood transfusions. Each week brings in more and more illustrations of the saving power of human blood.

Chairman Flannery pointed out again that the blood program is designed to furnish whole blood to the entire community at no cost, except for the customary laboratory charge by the hospital. The success of the program now under way necessarily depends on the generosity of our fellow citizens in donating blood for their neighbors, friends and relations.

First Step

The first step in our program Dr. Flannery stated, is to have all healthy men or women between the ages of 18 and 60 stop at the Red Cross headquarters at 39 North Beaver street between the hours of 10 to 12 in the morning or 3 to 5 in the afternoon, from Monday through Friday, where Miss Kathleen C. Angellio, qualified technician will type and classify the donor's blood.

Each donor's blood type is noted for him on a card that should be carried at all times, in case he himself needs emergency transfusions. Precious minutes will not have to be wasted in typing or finding suitable donors.

Require 75 Pints Monthly

The program in Lawrence county will require initially 75 pints monthly, and as the supply becomes available, greater use will be made instead of resorting to substitutes.

After the first of the year, arrangements will be made at the convenience of the donor for the donating of blood. It only takes about 30 minutes to give a pint of blood and there are no harmful after-effects. During World War II more than 10,000 pints of blood were donated and collected in Lawrence county.

No greater peacetime project has ever been undertaken by the Red Cross in cooperation with the Lawrence County Medical Society.

Here is an opportunity to participate in the most humanitarian cause in the world, giving of yourself so that you and others might live.

Woman And Baby Hurt In Crash

Mrs. Doris Phipps, aged 26 years, of Berea, O., and her little daughter, Cathie, aged two years, were treated at the Jameson Memorial hospital at 10 o'clock, Tuesday morning, for injuries received when the Phipps car was involved in a collision with another machine.

Mrs. Phipps suffered a fractured nose, and the baby had contusions of the chest. They were able to leave the hospital after receiving treatment.

PLACED UNDER ARREST

Roman Kojort, Moravia street, was arrested by Detectives Thomas Boyle and Jack Thompson on a charge of violating the city's gaming ordinance, at Scioto street and Long avenue, this morning. It was alleged by the detectives he is connected with the numbers operation.

German Seeks Title Of World Citizen

World Abolish Death Penalty, Prisons And Jails, As Well As Destruction Of Monuments

FRANKFURT — (INS) — A 30-year-old ex-German has proclaimed himself "World Citizen No. 2" and will join Garry Davis, the ex-pilot who gave up his American citizenship to become "World Citizen No. 1."

Rudi Herzberger, a stateless newspaperman, revealed in an interview that he intends to talk over a prepared program for "World Citizenship" with Davis.

After reaching an agreement with Davis, Herzberger said he plans to publish his program in English, French, and German along with an appeal to humanity to begin the "greatest task in history."

Ten Years Of Travel
 He said his plan was born after more than 10 years of traveling which enabled him to study world affairs closely. The main points of his program call for:

1. Immediate elimination of all citizenships.
2. Complete equality of all races and creeds.
3. Complete disarmament, including atomic weapons.
4. All "World Citizens" will

5. Immediate withdrawal of all occupation forces anywhere in the world and their complete demobilization.

6. Formation of an "International Police Force" whose weapons are to be registered and carefully supervised.

7. Immediate dissolution of all political parties and tearing down of all concentration camps.

8. Immediate destruction of all monuments, paintings, books and toys commemorating, celebrating or dealing with war.

9. Unrestricted world trade and travel, uniform world currency and postal service and communication.

10. Banning of lecturing on history in schools. History will be reintroduced in school effective the date of the setting up of a world government.

11. Elimination of death penalty for criminals "because nobody has authority to pronounce death for fellow world citizens."

12. Tearing down of all jails and prisons. In the future, all criminals have to be "guided" by small committees consisting of one lawyer, one priest, and one psychiatrist. These committees are to be set up in every town, "because 99 per cent of all criminals can be converted."

Ellwood Group To Lead Rally

Leesburg Youth for Christ Rally will continue this week, with the service taking place again in the Leesburg Presbyterian church at 7:45 o'clock, Saturday evening.

A special group of young people from the Ellwood City Youth for Christ will conduct the program, which will include special music, speaking and chorus singing.

CREATE NEW DIOCESE
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS) — Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cicognani, apostolic delegate to the United States, today announced creation of a new Catholic diocese in Joliet, Ill.

The papal delegate also named three new American bishops. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Martin D. McNamara, pastor of St. Francis Xavier church, Wilmette, Ill., will be first bishop of the new Joliet diocese.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William A. O'Connor of Chicago was named new bishop of the diocese of Springfield, Ill., and Rev. William E. Cousins of Chicago was appointed titular Bishop of Formosa and auxiliary to his eminence Samuel Cardinal Stritch, archbishop of Chicago.

Browning Ross, only American to reach the finals of the Olympic 3,000 meter steeplechase run, will compete for the Villanova cross-country team. He's a junior at the university.

Steel pipe which is to transmit oil, gas, air or chemicals under pressure, is carefully inspected and tested. Water from a hydrostatic press is forced into the pipe under a 150 to 2,000-pound pressure, depending upon service requirements.

Air pressure, developed by a huge blowing unit, drove New York's first subway car from Warren to Murray street. The flow of air was reversed for the short return trip. This first subway was luxuriously upholstered, and could carry 18 people.

Large Crowd Will Hear Bishop Wicke

Methodist Bishop Of Pittsburgh Area Here On Sunday

Tickets for the Bishop's Breakfast, to be held Sunday morning, January 2 in The Castleton hotel are going fast, Chairman De Lacey said today.

The breakfast is for Methodist men, with the guest of honor Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, bishop of the Pittsburgh area. The bishop will speak informally to the Methodist men following the breakfast and will address a mass meeting in First Methodist church at eleven o'clock.

Bishop Wicke was named as a bishop last June at the Jurisdictional Conference of the church, and appointed to the Pittsburgh area, which includes 1200 Methodist churches in the Pittsburgh, West Virginia and Erie conferences.

He will open the four year "Advance for Christ and His Church" campaign in Lawrence county at the mass meeting at eleven o'clock. At noon today Chairman Cole said there were still a few places open for the breakfast. Mr. Cole and Newell A. Kelly, are committee members in New Castle and reservations can be made through them.

Section Presidents Installed At State Teachers Meeting

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Two department and ten section presidents today were installed by the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

Thomas Francis, of Scranton, was elected administration department president, and Lucy Valero, Slickville, head of the classroom teachers in elementary education department.

Section presidents were: Earl R. Strange, Pottstown, president of the consumer education section; Raymond H. Amalong, Greenville, president, college teachers of education; William C. Koons, Blain, president, agriculture; Edgar H. Riley, Bethlehem, president, college and university; John G. Hulton, Latrobe, president, district superintendent; Lucy Valero, Slickville, president, rural schools; John M. Lumley, Dushore, county superintendent; C. V. Skala, Erie, president of secondary school principals; Ruth Iselt, Pittsburgh, president, elementary subject matter; and Mildred Kelly, Williamsport, senior high school subject matter.

Predicts Earthquake In Italy January 6

LONDON — (INS) — An earthquake will rock Italy on January 6, 1949, if William Wheeler—London's 60-year-old unofficial forecaster—is right once again.

Weather-wise Wheeler, who accurately predicted the date of the recent earthquake in Russia and in fact tipped off London's Kew Observatory ten days in advance, is certain Italy is in for a "shock" on or about January 6.

"It may be a few hours out. It may be the day before or the day after," he admitted after checking his bulging folder of notes he has accumulated in over 40 years of research.

Pencil Weather Records The fat folder contains pencilled records of earthquakes (Wheeler terms them shocks), cold days, hot days, rainy days, snowy days, blizzards, sun-in-the-winter days—everything and anything exceptional in the weather.

Wheeler refuses to give any indication of how he manages to predict earthquakes. He says: "It's just done in my head and by study. I spend all my spare moments studying my records and add to them nearly every day. Sometimes it takes me months to work out a date.

"At the moment I have several shocks in view. The thing I don't know yet is what alters the time when a shock would normally take place."

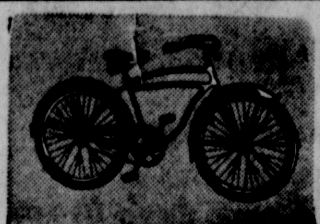

Not Satisfied With Date Wheeler is not satisfied in just predicting the date and general location of an earthquake. His ambition is to work out the exact hour, date, and place.

The amiable student of natural phenomena is interested in all sorts of weather. He often aids farmers by telling them just when it will rain, or whether they can expect a dry spell.

Some days before his wedding on August 2, 1923, Wheeler told friends to come to the ceremony prepared for a thunderstorm. He was right, there was a thunderstorm.

Red Kidnappings Brought To Halt

American Radio Cars Big Factor In Stopping Kidnappings In Western Berlin

BERLIN — (INS) — Kidnapping of western sector German residents by the Russians and Soviet-sector police have been virtually halted, thanks to an old American police standby—the radio car.

The radio car, though standard equipment in small town American police departments, amazed Berliners when it was introduced a year ago. The radio cars successfully curbed an alarming number of snatching of western sector Germans by Soviet authorities.

Even Hitler never got around to using the "funk wagen," although he achieved substantially the same effect with his droves of gestapo agents.

As might be expected, the Soviet press is wrathful over the "funk wagen," which, it snarls, is "an American instrument of fascist terror."

Allies and German authorities began to note a decline in kidnapping cases after radio cops arrested four of Paul Markgraf's Soviet-sector police in the act of abducting a western sector German from an apartment house in the American sector.

American military courts have followed through by sentencing a number of Russian-directed German police to five year prison terms for attempted kidnappings.

Western sector Germans have been emboldened politically. They feel secure because Soviet agents no longer can make unhindered, quick forays into the western sectors to bag political fugitives and uranium mine conscripts.

Forty-five radio cars are now operating in the three western sectors, mainly in the American sector. Their number soon will be doubled by new Volkswagen being flown in on the airlift from the Volkswagen plant at Fallersleben in the British Zone.

Letter Carriers Election Held

Robert Maxwell Is President Of New Castle Branch 22, National Letter Carriers Association

Local branch No. 22 of National Association of Letter Carriers met for their annual election of officers Tuesday evening in the YMCA.

Those named are: President, Robert Maxwell; vice-president, Jack Weatherly; secretary, Francis J. Augustine; financial secretary, Carroll Forrest; N.S.B.A. collector, John S. Gaston; trustee, Thomas Davis, and sergeant at arms, Donald Lutz.

January 25, is the next meeting in the Eccles club rooms, South and South Jefferson streets.

Poor Man's Ponies Thrive In Tokyo

Latest Craze In Tokyo Is Miniature Race Track Where Bettors Can Win Jap Cigs

TOKYO — (INS) — The latest roadside attraction in Tokyo is a miniature horse race track through which one can easily win a package of sixty yen cigarettes by spending one hundred yen.

The "poor man's ponies" thrive around busy railroad stations where as many as a half-dozen races go on at once.

The miniature horse race, consisting of an inclined board and six little metal horses, is quite similar to a live horse race in that the ponies you bet on seldom come in winners.

The operator—who is bookie, announcer and starter rolled into one—lines up the horses at the top of the board.

You place your ten yen on the horse of your choice and—"They're off!"

Keeping up a steady stream of spiel the operator noisily grinds a crank and the horses slide down the board, neck and neck.

The field spreads out, however, when it hits the obstacles—in the form of brass rivets—which allow some horses (the ones you aren't betting on) to get ahead on the home stretch.

"And it's No. 2 by a nose!" announces the operator who is also the judge. The winning bettor, if any, gets a pack of cigarettes.

The races apparently operate without any "raffish"—secret devices with which operators can manipulate games. Deceits or friends of the operators, however, mingle in with genuine cash customers to increase the operator's chances of making money.

In 1615, a few rats, brought to Bermuda by a visiting ship, multiplied until they overran the island, destroying so much food that a famine resulted. A law was passed requiring every man on the island to keep 12 traps set. In 1618, the rats suddenly disappeared, the victims of a disease of their own. It was thought.

Swans nest mostly in high latitudes, constructing on the ground crude receptacles of rushes and the like for the half dozen greenish eggs. They feed chiefly on vegetable substances, like the seeds and roots of aquatic plants, but also on fish spawn, great quantities of which they destroy. Swans hiss like geese, and strike with their wings in attack or defense.

1949 Boom Hinted In State Business

College Research Agency Expects High Level To Be Reached

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Dec. 29.—Pennsylvania business in 1949 should continue at the high level which marked the closing months of 1948, the Bureau of Business Research, Pennsylvania State College, reported.

The bureau said unsatisfied demand and rather adequate and widespread purchasing power ought to insure continuing high production and trade volume.

The bureau said the state's heavy industries, especially iron and steel, should be favorably affected by the short supply of metals, and continued demand for durable goods, such as automobiles. It added that any increase in government spending for military goods for this country, Europe or China, should be reflected in Pennsylvania's major industries.

Continuing high industrial output, the bureau said, would keep busy the state's fuel producers, hard and soft coal mines and the oil fields.

However, the bureau said the labor supply may prevent an increase over 1948 levels of industrial output, and warned that continued inflation would reduce purchasing power and tend to price many goods out of the market.

But a sharp drop in prices, the bureau said, would likely result in production cutbacks and unemployment, with steel seriously affected, especially since the outflowing of the basing point system, which might put the state's steel industrial at a competitive disadvantage.

OVER MILLION VETS ATTEND GI SCHOOLS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—There were 1,051,000 World War II veterans in school November 30, the Veterans Administration said.

This is a decline of 185,000 from the November 30, 1947 total. The record high was 1,235,000 in December, 1947.

Plan Streamlining State School Code

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The Joint State Government Commission today offered for legislative approval a plan to streamline the 38-year-old Pennsylvania school code.

The commission's sub-committee on education, in its formal report to the General Assembly, recommended complete reorganization of the code to eliminate obsolete sections and ambiguities.

The committee pointed out that the General Assembly has amended portions of the original code in every session since 1910.

"Many of these amendments have been added to the code without much regard for proper arrangement or division into sections or subsections," the committee said. "The result is that the school code has sections, each several pages long, which are not even divided into grammatical paragraphs."

The proposed code, substituting 5110 sections for the 4007 sections in the present statute, would not entail any "change of language that might result in a change of meaning or in the application of any provision of the school laws," the committee said.

"Most of the language remains unchanged. Wherever a provision has been restated, an effort has been made to clarify it through the use of simple language and short sentences."

3010 Illegal Stills Seized in 5 Months

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Federal "revenuers" knocked over 3010 stills in the July-November period, the Internal Revenue Bureau announced today.

They seized 48,139 gallons of moonshine and arrested 3545 persons. Total property seized was worth $1,057,714, about twice as much as last year's July-November total.

Southeastern states, following the normal trend, yielded the bulk of the illicit liquor.

11-Ton Plane Tested For Carrier Duty

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—One of the heaviest airplanes ever designed solely for carrier duty, the Martin AM-1 Mauler, is being tested on the U. S. S. Kearsarge off the Atlantic coast, the Navy disclosed.

It is a 22,000-pound craft combining the heaviest concentration of torpedoes, rockets and machine guns ever set up on a single-engine, carrier-based plane.

Powered by one Pratt and Whitney R-4360-A engine, it has only the pilot for crew. It has a range of more than 2000 miles and a maximum speed of more than 300 miles an hour.

Except for guns mounted in the leading edges of the wings, all armament is carried in shackles under the wings and fuselage.

By FRANCES MARTEL GIVING A HOUSEWARMING
"We have recently moved into a new home and would like to have a housewarming. At what time should it take place, how soon after we move in, and what should be served?"

Answer: A housewarming is just like any other party, except that the guests should be taken through the house for inspection and bring gifts for the new home. So you had better have your house ready for close scrutiny, even your closets, before you plan your party. It may take place in the afternoon and you may serve tea, tea sandwiches and cakes; or you may serve cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. If you prefer, your party may be in the evening followed by a buffet supper of cold, sliced meats, a salad, rolls, coffee and cake. You may play bridge or some other game if you wish, but I think your guests' time will be completely occupied with their inspection of your new home, conversation and perhaps dancing.

"I have a friend who recently accepted a dinner invitation and then cancelled it to accept a more attractive offer. Don't you think she was very rude?"

Answer: An unavoidable circumstance, such as illness, death in the family, an accident or a sudden and necessary business trip can excuse the cancellation of a dinner engagement. Your friend, if she continues her present technique, will soon find herself on the road to social oblivion. Never accept an invitation if you are indifferent about it, with the idea that you will try to top it with a more attractive offer. Doing so will gain for you a reputation as a social climber and lose for you any popularity you now have. There are occasions when engagements with members of the family or intimate friends may be broken to accept something "more interesting." Even these must be only occasions when the invitation was casual, such as "Come and have dinner with us on Monday, unless something especially interesting turns up for you." Then your reply might be: "Very well, and you telephone me if your plans are changed." As I said, this is allowable only when the relationship is very intimate and the invitation very casual.

Present your problems to Miss Martel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

MODERN WOMEN
"BETTER TO LOOK AT"
CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—Modern women are bigger and better looking than ever, a corset manufacturer reported today.

The company found in a survey that women have become heavier in the shoulders, hips and bust, and an inch taller.

Louise Douglas, a veteran designer for the firm, said that in addition the women were "a lot better to look at."

Miss Douglas said that women began to expand when they freed themselves from the "rib-crushing restrictions" of old-fashioned foundation garments. The evolution is so complete, she said, that women nowadays are inclined to buy shoes that fit rather than pinch.

that in New York, for less reason—and felt worse in the morning!"

"The trouble with our school system today," explains Commissioner William Brish, "is that the teachers are afraid of the principals, the principals are afraid of the superintendent, he is afraid of the Board of Education, the Board is afraid of the parents, the parents are afraid of the children, and the children are afraid of nobody."

HANDLING VARNISH
If varnish is sticky and does not flow properly, it can be thinned by setting the can in a pan of warm water. Never place it on a stove because it is highly combustible. If thinned with turpentine, the gloss will be destroyed.

USE ESSENCE CAREFULLY
Sometimes a recipe will call for a certain number of drops of peppermint or some other essence. So that the essence will drop evenly from the bottle, wet the finger with a little water and dampen the rim of the bottle in just one place.

POLISHING FURNITURE
If, before polishing furniture you wipe it over with a cloth dipped in vinegar and water, the polishing will be easier, and no fingermarks will show.

BOY COASTER KILLED
BRADFORD, Pa., Dec. 29.—(INS)—A Christmas sled today had carried little three-year-old James McCutcheon, Jr., to his death against the wheels of a delivery truck near his home.

The child, whose father suffered fatal injuries in an automobile accident nearly a year ago, died of a fractured skull after he crashed into the rear wheels of the truck Monday as he was sledding.

Couple To Fight Extradition On Kidnap Charge

POMONA, Calif., Dec. 20.—(INS)—A Tacoma, Wash., couple said today they would fight extradition to Harrisburg, Pa., to face kidnapping charges.

The couple, John Bragert, 34, and his 21-year-old wife, Jean, surrendered to Pomona police yesterday after learning they were wanted for "kidnaping" Mrs. Bragert's three-year-old daughter, Vickie Snyder.

A warrant signed by District Attorney Carl B. Shelley of Harrisburg alleged the couple abducted the child December 19 from the Harrisburg home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Snyder. They had adopted her after their son and daughter-in-law were divorced.

Mrs. Snyder charged she gave permission for the child's mother to take Vickie to visit mutual friends 10 miles from Harrisburg. Mrs. Bragert declared:

"I decided the only way I'd ever get Vickie back was just to take her."

She told authorities the Snyders offered to take care of Vickie when she went to work in a Harrisburg store after the divorce. Later, she said, they adopted the child on the strength of papers they forced me to sign under threats." She added:

"I was only 18 at the time." Shelley was quoted as saying: "This is kidnapping. The mother signed away all rights to the child when she put her up for adoption. That makes her no different than anyone else."

MILLBURN

Roll call for the regular meeting of Millburn grange was responded to by the members Christmas wishes. After the singing of "Come Thou Almighty King," the Christmas story from Luke 2 was read. Dorothy Woods recited the poem "Empty Stocking." The group were then asked to identify carols of which the second verse was given. A medley of carols was rendered by Joan Woods on the clarinet, and the program closed with the singing of carols by the group and a gift exchange. On Saturday evening, January 1, 1948 at 7 p. m. the grange will hold its annual New Year's tuxedo dinner to which the Ladies' Friendship club and their families are invited.

Robert Patterson is ill with grippe at this writing. Doris Robinson is making satisfactory improvement at her home from the spinal injury.

Mrs. John Monsky was the fortunate winner of a new Maytag washer given for owning the oldest Maytag to be in use at the present time. Hers having been manufactured in 1923.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woods entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Woods and family on Christmas Day. The John Woods family and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Armstrong and daughter, Sally, spent Friday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Patterson were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Moore of New Castle. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hunt of Eastbrook called in the Patterson home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ramsey had as Christmas guests Cecil and LeRoy Jordan and their families, Mrs. Frances Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell and baby and Lester Robinson and son, Bruce. The Ramseys spent Sunday evening with Mr. Ramsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fink were at Oil City on Friday at funeral services for Mrs. Fink's stepmother, Mrs. A. V. Perry, whose death occurred Wednesday after a lingering illness.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Drake spent Christmas with their son, Hiram and family north of Mercer.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Sopher and Sam McClelland of Grove City were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hume and family. Constance Hume of Pittsburgh spent the holiday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fink and daughter of Leesburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Fink of the Sharon-Mercer road, and Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz of Cleveland were Christmas guests in the Metzger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Frankenburg had as their holiday guests their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sewall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Black and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frankenburg and baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Latahaw were guests of Mr. Latahaw's parents for 1 o'clock dinner on Christmas and then drove to Buffalo where they spent the week-end with Mrs. Latahaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis and daughter of Parker's Landing visited the Latahaws on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Best and Blaine spent the holiday with their daughter, Mrs. James Bell and family at Oil City. The Bells and Mr. and Mrs. Clement Ellis of Franklin spent Sunday with their parents. Mrs. Best visited at Emmenton last week and on Saturday with her son visited her brother, Henry Novak, who spent the holiday week-end at his home in Linesville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Masters entertained Dr. and Mrs. Harry Ficks of Brownsville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Masters and children of Mercer, Geraldine Masters of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Masters and son on Christmas.

Mrs. C. D. Bougher, John Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Armstrong and sons were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buncie of Cooperstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Ramsey and son of Warren, O., Shirley Ramsey of Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McCracken and son and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ramsey and son enjoyed a family dinner in the Ramsey home on Christmas.

George Lukacs is spending several days with his aunt and uncle, Miss Cora and W. E. Hart of Erie.

UNDER OBSERVATION

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—(INS)—Dr. Albert Einstein is under observation today at the Brooklyn Jewish hospital.

A hospital spokesman refused to give details but said the general health of the 70-year-old scientist is good, adding that Einstein is receiving "a physical checkup."

He is being attended by two physicians. Hospital attendants refused to confirm a report that Einstein is suffering from a gall bladder condition.

CANCELS ALL DEBTS
BERKLEY SPRINGS, W. Va., Dec. 20.—(INS)—The patients of Dr. H. Craig Hunter in Berkley Springs will start the new year with a clean slate.

Dr. Hunter, to whom everyday must be Christmas, advertised in a newspaper that all debts owned him for "professional services" were cancelled—marked off the books as Christmas presents.

Dr. Hunter said: "I suggest that patients who owe me . . . give the money to a hospital or to some charitable institution."

Police Called To Untangle Domestic Trouble In Fort Worth, Texas Couple's Home

FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 25.—(INS)—What would happen if a man, his former wife, present wife, and wife-to-be got together in a small, frame house along with a male friend of the wife-to-be?

Fort Worth was the scene of such a dynamic gathering and you're right—the result was some domestic fission that made the explosion of an atomic bomb sound like the popping of a paper bag. Inning by inning the blast went something like this:

First inning—Ex-wife and former husband meet late at night in a tavern. They retire to the house where she is to advise him on selection of furniture.

Second Inning—Present wife, from whom her husband says he soon will be divorced, enters with wife-to-be and their male companion.

Third Inning—According to the ex-wife, she is cornered by the other two women. In self-defense, she claims, she whips out a pocket knife.

Sharp Clash Follows Fourth Inning—Sharp clash follows. Ex-wife claims she is bopped on head with an axe handle by friends.

Fifth Inning—Husband leaps in to separate truculent women. Struggle then called by arrival of police.

The box score: Ex-wife—cut finger and knot on blond head. Charged with aggravated assault by wife and wife-to-be.

Present wife—Severe slash on thigh.

Wife-to-be—deep laceration on hip.

Friend—Booked on aggravated assault filed by ex-wife.

After-game comment by husband: "Those gals were all just a little jealous."

Kroger Company

Employees Given Christmas Checks

Cash Christmas gifts totaling $30,000 were distributed last week to Kroger Company employees in the Pittsburgh area, Glenn F. Knickerbocker, Kroger branch manager announced.

These Kroger people are among the 20,000 store, warehouse, office and manufacturing plant personnel located in 19 midwestern and southern states who participated in the firm's Christmas Gift Plan, announced recently by Joseph B. Hall, Kroger president.

The checks, enclosed in a colorful illustrated Christmas message from Mr. Hall went to every employee with six months or more service with the exception of those employees who participated in a company incentive plan. Incentive Plan checks will be distributed early in 1949.

Find Man Asleep In Minister's Bed

SOMERVILLE, Mass., Dec. 25.—(INS)—An unidentified man, apparently still imbued with much holiday spirit started the household of the Rev. H. Murray Elliott when he was found fast asleep in the minister's bed last night.

Equally startled was the stranger himself when he was routed out of dreamland by the minister, Mrs. Elliott, and a policeman.

"What're all you people doing in my home?" shouted the stranger. "Get out!"

Finally convinced that the mistake was his—not the Reverend Elliott's—the man mumbled embarrassed apologies and went out to find his own bed.

An interested spectator to it all was the Rev. Elliott's 10-year-old son, Peter. It was the boy who spotted the sleeping man while alone at home, and raised the alarm.

Mrs. Ybarbo's Mother Appeals To Truman

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Dec. 29.—(INS)—The mother of Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo appealed directly to President Truman today to take a hand in sparing her daughter from a "life in prison."

Mrs. Eunice Bailey, mother of the 28-year-old Massachusetts woman sentenced to 20 years for the slaying of her soldier-husband in Germany, declared in a personal letter to the president:

"My girl is innocent and I know that if you will only review the case you will be convinced also. I am near frantic from worry over the terrible blow that has befallen my child."

"I appeal to you, please, to help in sparing my daughter from such a horrible fate for something of which she is not guilty."

SEAMAN McCULLOUGH ON PACIFIC CRUISE

Edward McCullough, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Cecelia McCullough of 202 Dixon street, is serving aboard the general communications ship Mount Olympus now cruising in Pacific waters.

Seaman McCullough entered the naval service April, 1948, and received his recruit training at Great Lakes prior to sea duty.

"The Devil's Parliament" was the name given to an English parliament convened by Henry VI, which met at Coventry in 1459, and justly attained the Duke of York and his adherents of high treason.

Ironie Touch To Rescue Of Fliers

WESTOVER FIELD, Mass., Dec.
29.—(INS)—An ironic touch to the rescue of 12 airmen from Greenland ice cap was disclosed at Westover Field today.

La. Col. Emily Beaudry, pilot of the rescue ship, is permanently assigned to the base traffic officer, a strictly non-flying job. His duties are primarily concerned with handling passengers and cargo on the ground.

Beaudry, considered one of the air force's top experts on multi-engine ski-equipped planes, was assigned from his non-flying job to the rescue operation in Greenland Dec. 15.

He has been in Labrador and Greenland awaiting suitable weather conditions for his rescue attempt.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy
John Nicholas Brown has described Naval Aviation as "the heart of the Navy, and upon the Air Arm rests the burden of maintaining the seapower we now have. The Navy, as a combat organization, is as strong as its aviation."

Radio Network Of

For Snow Removal Battle Of Winter

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)
—Expansion of the state highways department's year-old radio network linking snow removal equipment on 41,000 miles of roads was forecast last night by Chief Maintenance Engineer Warren K.
Myers.

In a radio address at Harrisburg,
Myers said the installation of radios last year facilitated the department's snow removal program by making it possible to transfer equipment with a minimum loss of time.

"This year our radio equipment has been increased and we hope the assignment of additional radio frequencies will make it possible for us to expand our base of radio-phone in the near future and thus improve our snow removal service," Myers said.

He reported 1,847 trucks, tractors and power graders valued at more than $6,000,000 would be available for the winter-long battle.

He did not estimate the amount of money which may be needed to last year the sum ranged around $7,000,000.

"The cost of snow removal service has increased in the past five years, as has everything else," Myers explained. "The greatest increase, however, has resulted from the demands of the traveling public for more service on more roads.
"Increased traffic is demanding this increased service."

"The economic value of motor transportation demands it, and to-mile of travel," Myers said.

NEW SAFETY RECORD
WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)
—United States air transportation knew today it had set a new safety record.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority announced that 1948 was the safest year in the history of U. S. commercial aviation, with only six fatal accidents costing 127 lives in combined domestic and overseas operation.

The accident rate was 1.3 fatalities per 100 million passenger miles for both domestic and overseas flying. Previous domestic record was a rate of 1.5 in 1946, and best former overseas record was 2.9 in 1947.

The U. S. Navy has developed a new steel cutting torch using electricity and an oxygen jet to operate. The new torch avoids the dangers inherent in using the highly explosive acetylene torch.

Pulaski Club Treats Kiddies For Christmas

Kiddies of the members of the Casimir Pulaski Lodge were bountifully treated for Christmas in a form of a treat composed of many goodies. The Pulaski hall was beautifully decorated with a huge Christmas tree in the center of the floor. Each youngster received a Christmas package composed of popcorn, fruit, candy and other Christmas delicacies in the cookie line. While the 300 kiddies waited their turn to receive the treat they were presented with movies given by Dan Korab.

Steve Brincko acted as Santa and gave out the Christmas packages. The kiddies of the Margaret Henry Home were also surprised by Santa Brincko bringing 75 bags of the Christmas treat. The youngsters with their directors were very thankful. The treat for the youngsters is a yearly affair. The Pulaski Club has 700 members. The purpose of the club is to promote good citizenship.

Chairman was Frank Richards and co-chairman was Stanley Boron.

Deny Charges Of Graft, Dope, Rackets In Penitentiary

State Welfare Secretary Says Investigation Reveals Charges Are Not Sustained

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Charges by several inmates of Western Penitentiary that graft, dope and rackets flourished within the prison were branded "unfounded" today by State Welfare Secretary Charles Barber.

He disclosed that department investigators initiated an inquiry after inmates, whom he labeled "troublemakers," tossed notes containing the allegations over penitentiary walls.

The notes, which passersby mailed to several western Pennsylvania newspapers earlier in the month, said prisoners had obtained dope from the institution hospital and claimed they gambled on the "numbers."

An unsigned letter said in part: "We, the men at Western State Penitentiary, the better element, are throwing this note over the wall hoping some kind citizen will mail it to you . . . we humbly beg you to contact Governor Duff to send investigators here and stop the graft, dope and numbers rackets before there are more escapes and a bloody riot."

It was also alleged that the graft extended to prison funds and that inmates were beaten.

The investigation, supervised by Corrections Bureau Chief Fred W. Brady, indicated the letters were prompted by John W. Clark who is serving 29 to 38 years for robbery, murder and receiving stolen goods.

"One of the charges made was that the head storekeeper owned a yacht and restaurant on the side from the graft he split with the warden and deputy warden," Barber asserted. There wasn't any truth to it."

He claimed gambling on the "numbers" did not exist among prisoners although he admitted they were permitted to play cards.

"If there is any numbers playing going on it is being done by employees on the outside," Barber declared.

Brady's report, he said, showed it would be impossible to obtain dope although two inmates had found a bottle of pehno barbitol and became violently ill after drinking the opiate. The drug apparently had been issued to a prisoner suffering a heart ailment, Barber explained.

In the report, Barber said, Bradu reported Clark was "paranoid" in his thinking and that he had been a "problem in every institution he had been in."

Clark was convicted of slaying a policeman who was taking him to Farview institution for the criminal insane.

ITALY MAY BUY
PRE-WAR SHIPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Italy may be offered a chance to buy some pre-war American ships for use in carrying Italian emigrants to South America.

Government officials said this was under consideration because Italy had run into difficulties in trying to lease some 15 passenger vessels in this country.

Negotiations for possible lease or purchase of newer ships have been in progress for several weeks but have come up against legal and other obstacles.

Italy is planning, if possible, to send about 400,000 emigrants abroad next year to relieve the Italian problem of overpopulation. To do that, the Italians must find sufficient shipping.

Cardinal Spellman Brands Charges As 'Utterly Untrue'

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York branded today as "utterly untrue" charges by the Hungarian government linking him to alleged treasonable plotting by Cardinal Mindszenty against the Budapest Communist regime.

Cardinal Spellman counter-charged that the arrest of the Hungarian prelate is the result of "months of threatening and plotting by Red Fascists" and is the "first grim step in another totalitarian mock trial."

The New York archbishop revealed that Cardinal Mindszenty returned to Hungary from the United States fully aware of the dangers he faced.

"Why Should I Fear?" Cardinal Spellman said, "when I had the honor to have the cardinal as a guest in my home, he was asked by someone if he did not fear to return to Hungary."

"Calmly, simply, he answered: 'Why should I fear to return? That is where my flock is. All my enemies can take from me is my life.'"

In charging that Cardinal Mindszenty's arrest is but a thumped-up Communist assault on the church, Cardinal Spellman stated:

"Names and places change, but Communist persecution of the church continues."

"Yesterday it was Aloisius Stepienac in Yugoslavia. Today it is Cardinal Mindszenty. But to this present martyr, prison walls will be no novelty. For nearly a year, he languished in jail rather than bow to Nazi dictatorship."

Estimate 10,000 Members To Attend State Conferences

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—An estimated 10,000 members of 28 statewide agricultural organizations will attend the 118 meetings and events scheduled for farmers during the 1949 farm show.

Agriculture Secretary Miles Horst, farm show commission chairman, said a wide range of interests will be covered in the meetings during the week-long exhibition opening January 10.

Meetings will include discussion of bang disease control and calf-hood infection; a conference of the Future Farmers of America on farm and home safety; a meeting of the Society of Farm Women of Pennsylvania featuring a discussion on "Pennsylvania Dutch Dialect and Folklore"; and a meeting of the Pennsylvania Flying Farmers association at Harrisburg state airport.

CAT-FOOTED YEGGS
FLEE WITH $50,000

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 29.—Cat-footed safecrackers tunneled through a floor, broke open a grocery warehouse safe today and escaped with more than $50,000 cash in Christmas week-end receipts.

Police chased three men believed to have stolen the money and captured one of them a few blocks from the warehouse, owned by City Councilman Cas Walker.

So quietly did the burglars work that they failed to disturb a sleeping couple in a room overlooking the office section of the warehouse.

Conferences Have Good Results, Lovett Reports

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Acting Secretary of State Lovett said today that U. S. consultations with other American republics on recent revolutions in the western hemisphere have produced helpful and interesting information.

Lovett told a news conference that replies to a U. S. proposal for a study of the outbreak of revolutions indicate that there is common belief among the American republics that the withholding of recognition from governments installed by force is hardly adequate.

FRANCE TO OUTFIT
'MONTY' QUARTERS

PARIS, Dec. 29.—The National Assembly, ignoring blistering Communist attacks, voted 418 to 181 to spend 40,000,000 francs (about $121,000) on outfitting the Fontainebleau headquarters of Field Marshal Lord Montgomery.

The former chief of the British Imperial General Staff is the top commander in the association of the five Brussels pact nations against aggression. Communist spokesmen, however, denounced the inter-allied organism for mutual military studies as an agency of "disaster."

When Andre Gautier, a Communist deputy, said the appropriation was designed to install "a new Henri Queuille and National Defense Minister Paul Ramadier walked out the chamber.

Napata was the ancient capital of Ethiopia. It is mentioned in inscriptions as early as 1450 B. C.

Red Actions In China Scored

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Acting Secretary of State Lovett today bitterly criticized Communist actions in China and behind the Iron Curtain in Europe.

Lovett, at a news conference, declared that the Communist action in branding Chinese Nationalist leaders as "war criminals" is a matter of grave concern to everyone.

He also denounced the arrest by the Hungarian government of Josef Cardinal Mindszenty as a sickening sham, and, with considerable indignation, said charges of espionage lodged against the prelate were probably false.

SANCTIFY
OLEAN, N. Y.—Services in the Open Bible church continued serenely despite a strong smell and the arrival of police. Small boys had tossed a dead skunk in through the doorway. A member of the congregation calmly tossed the carcass back outside and when police appeared the church-goers remained intent on the sermon.

There are four kinds of poisonous snakes in the United States: rattlesnakes, copperheads, water moccasins and coral snakes. There are many times that number of useful snakes.

NEW TAXES LIKELY FOR N. Y. BUDGET

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 29.—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey let it be known today that he believed new taxes would be necessary to finance the 1949-50 state budget of nearly a billion dollars. He also said the budget had "no good news in it anywhere."

Dewey said the state government would require $220,000,000 more next year to finance what he called good, worthy, desirable or essential projects. He said expenses would probably rise from this year's $738,000,000 to at least $960,000,000.

Despite a prediction of a surplus in his budget message last February, Dewey said today the state would end the fiscal year with a slight deficit.

There are four kinds of poisonous snakes in the United States: rattlesnakes, copperheads, water moccasins and coral snakes. There are many times that number of useful snakes.

Titans Defeat All-Stars; New Castle Trims Ford City

Collegians Take 59 To 32 Victory

Don Reed Stars In 48 To 36 Win

Sparked by Bruce Wagner and Jerry Hyder, Westminster's Towering Titans put on a sterling exhibition of basketball at Washington High floor last night, downing the Lawrence County All-Stars 59 to 32.

It was an Optimist Club sponsored contest, and drew a very disappointing crowd of not more than 500 fans. The Optimists use the money derived from these various endeavors, to further their boys work program.

Among Best In Nation

Westminster, one of the top teams in the nation this year, will meet the University of Louisville at Farrell Thursday in a big intersectional battle, and accepted the bid for the game here last night to keep in shape after the Christmas holidays.

Coach Grover Washabaugh used 13 men in the game. Wagner with 13 points, Chet Dembinski with 10, and Hyder with 12 were the scoring stars while as usual the sparkling defensive play of Don "Ozark" McCullough delighted the fans.

Coach Paul Morrison of the All-Stars used 12 men in the contest, with Pete Stack, Don Watters and "Rags" Gennock in starring roles.

This was the third annual Optimist All-Star game. Carl O. Salberg was general chairman, and William F. De Carbo was co-chairman.

Titans Merely Toy

Not discrediting the All-Stars one bit, but had Washabaugh elected to leave his first team in the game all evening it would have been a much larger score. As it turned out the Titans subs scored 17 of the 59 points.

Westminster has a well balanced squad this year, and three-deep in every department. It is going to take one sweet ball club to defeat the Titans. Impressive is hardly the right word to use in describing the Titans.

The All-Stars, fine players every one of them, were at a disadvantage in not having played together for more than three or four times, being scattered among the best teams in the county. Freddy Wimer just back from Florida played part of the time and looked like his old self at times. The All-Stars' star-plugs were Pete Stack, Don Watters and Gennock, with 21 of the 32 points, between them.

Westminster led 15 to 8 the first period, and at the half 36 to 17. The end of the third stanza it was 48 to 25 with Washabaugh taking out his first team after the period ended.

While the crowd was disappointing, the game wasn't, the fans saw a lot of clever basketball and one of the top ranking quintets in the district and nation.

East Brook Wins

In the preliminary game the East Brook Boosters defeated the Ellwood City VFW team 38 to 25, in a very well played contest.

The Optimist Club wishes to thank everybody who donated their services to the club for the benefit game, especially Nickie Ross, Joe Wysocki, Pete Panella, and Jim Pears, who did the officiating, the All-Star players, Coaches Paul Morrison and Austin Cowmeadow, and the two fine teams—East Brook and Ellwood for their work in the preliminary game. They are City-County league teams.

Tigers Give Kennedy Job

DETROIT, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Ray Kennedy, director of farm clubs for the Pittsburgh Pirates, today was appointed head of the Detroit Tigers' minor league system.

He succeeds Robert "Red" Rolfe who was appointed manager following the discharge of Steve O'Neill late in the fall.

Well Fitted
 In announcing the appointment, General Manager Billy Evans said that Kennedy has had 30 years experience as a baseball executive and is "well fitted" for his new job.

Kennedy was Pirate general manager in 1946 and previous to that served in the New York Yankees system as player manager and assistant to George Weiss in the New York farm system.

He played minor league baseball as a catcher and broke into the big leagues in 1916 with the St. Louis Browns.

Mustangs Gain Revenge For Early Season Defeat; Lace Greyhounds 60 To 34

Mercer High Mustangs invaded New Wilmington last night seeking revenge for an early season overtime loss to the Greyhound cagers. This they did effectively with a 60 to 34 triumph.

Mercer, led by Redfoot who tossed in 17 markers, got off to a four-point lead in the first period and increased that margin to 14 at the half. From then on it was a matter of how big the final score would be.

Tom Hutchison hooped 12 points for New Wilmington. The Greyhounds have now completed their pre-league contests with a record of five wins and two losses.

Mercer reserves sunk New Wilmington J.V. in the prelim 43 to 13.

Billy Meyer Deserves 'Manager Of Year' Spot

Billy Meyer... manager of year?

By TROY GORDON
 (International News Service Sports Writer)

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 28.—The Pittsburgh Pirates today issued a warning to the other members of the National League to beware in 1949!

In effect, the warning said: "That climb from last place in 1947 to fourth in 1948 was all right, but we aren't satisfied and next year we're shooting the works."

So you think that's silly? Well, don't bet your life savings on it, because no one expected any improvement last season and look what happened.

Manager of Year

Manager Billy Meyer, in his first year in the majors after 21 years of outstanding work as a minor league pilot, took a bunch of cast-offs and youngsters and a few pretty good ball players and lifted them into the first division.

For that task, Meyer has been generally accepted as the "Manager of the Year" and no one is willing to argue that—given a few key players—he won't have the Pirates up at the top.

And it may be that some of the newcomers the Pittsburgh team has picked up will do the trick.

Good Catchers

Behind the plate the Pirates have Ed Fitz Gerald returning, after an impressive first year, and have added Clyde McCullough from the Chicago Cubs, and Earl Turner, up from the Indianapolis farm club. Clyde Klutz, the No. 2 man last year, appears to be headed for some place else.

On the mound, Bob Cheshnes is billed as most likely to be the leading pitcher. Cheshnes was bothered by a sore arm the first half of last season, and still won 14 games. Elmer Riddle, Kirby Higbe and Vic Lombardi should have fair or better years, and Truett "Rip" Sewell will be around to beat his favorites—the Chicago Cubs.

Newcomers Will Help

New faces include Hugh Casey and Bob Muncrief, oldtimers who could help considerably with key victories. Cliff Chambers, from the Cubs and Bill Werle, from San Francisco, are a pair of left-handers whose value is uncertain but promising.

At first base, Eddie Stevens will be back, hoping to improve his batting average after leading the league in fielding. And Les Fleming, who has been here and there in the majors, is advancing from Indianapolis.

No one wants any change at second base or shortstop where Danny Murtaugh and Stan Rojek form one of the best combinations in baseball.

Third base is a problem even

PIAA Board Makes Changes

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The PIAA Board of Control today opened the door to selection of provisional officials to officiate only in junior basketball varsity games.

Provisional standing will be accorded officials who score within 12 points of the passing grade established in rules examinations by the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. The board's ruling is retroactive to the last basketball officials examination November 18.

Secretary Edmund Wicht said the board also voted to eliminate the 180-yard low hurdle experimental event for Class A schools from district and state meets.

Wicht reported the board approved an additional five-cent charge on district and inter-district games and another 25-cent boost in admission to all adult tickets for regional and state games in classes A and B. The money will be deposited in the PIAA building fund to underwrite purchase of the organization's new $35,000 headquarters.

J. E. Nancarrow, principal of Upper Darby high school, was re-appointed chairman of the protection fund's board of directors for another five years. Wicht reported, while Dr. R. B. Taylor, of Norristown's Rittenhouse junior high school, was named to the board for one year.

Mark N. Funk, principal of La-trobe high school, was appointed to succeed Lee Aber who resigned from the board of directors for the fund.

At yesterday's reorganization meeting of the control board, C. L. Walsh, of Pittsburgh, was elected president and Ira C. Gross, of Johnstown, was named vice-president. W. E. Griffith, of Somerset, was elected treasurer.

East Is Favored In Shrine Battle At San Francisco

Two Of West Squad's Best Backs Are On Crumpled List For Charity Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—(INS)—The East All-Stars today strengthened their position as favorites in the forthcoming New Year's Day Shrine classic when it became increasingly apparent that two of the West's best backs will see little if any action.

The West had been planning an aerial attack based on the hurling of Tulsa's Jim Finks, the nation's second best passer. But Finks was released from the hospital only yesterday after an attack of carbuncles on his neck.

East Squad Ready

Weak from penicillin injections and with his neck swathed in bandages, he will not be able to practice until tomorrow. It was considered doubtful whether he can learn the West's offensive patterns in time to be of much use Saturday.

Earlier, Halfback Jack Kirby of USC was ruled out because of a chipped wrist bone.

Meanwhile, Henry Schmidt, trainer for the East, termed this year's squad "the best conditioned East team I have ever handled."

SCHEDULE CHANGES IN CLASS A LEAGUE

St. George Greeks meet First Congregational in the lid lifter on tonight's Class A church league card at the "Y". This game was originally scheduled for 9 o'clock but has been interchanged with the First Baptist-First U.P. game which is now scheduled to be played last.

Epworth meets Third U.P. in the 8 o'clock contest.

Cleveland won the team batting title with a 282 mark. This was four points better than the Yankees. Cleveland and New York also placed one-two in the home run department, with 155 and 139 circuit clouts, respectively.

Northwestern Star, Don Burson, Hurt; 'Wildcats' Moan

Northwestern Coach Bob Voigt Is Plainly Worried, Bears Confident

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 29.—(INS)—The injury to the passing arm of Northwestern quarterback Don Burson was Coach Bob Voigt's chief concern today as the Wildcats continued preparations for Saturday's New Year's Day Rose Bowl battle against California.

The Cats number one signal caller reported for practice with the sore flipper yesterday but the Northwestern coach said he expected Burson to be in shape by game time.

Serious Loss

Should Burson's arm fail to respond to treatment before the battle, it will be a serious loss to Northwestern. The 21-year-old quarterback has pitched eight touchdowns passes this season.

From the Riverside quarters of California, Coach Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf said today the game will resolve into a battle between two rugged lines.

He plans to send his Bears through a light offensive drill this afternoon in hopes of finding a method for going over, through or around the bruising Northwestern forward wall.

ELKS BOWL TONIGHT THOMPSON ANNOUNCES

Don Reed, continued his sensational scoring with 24 points, last night as the New Castle High "Red Hurricane" basketball team amazed the district floor circles, by slamming a 48 to 36 defeat on the crack Ford City High team, at Ford City.

It was the final pre-league carded game for the George Thomas coached quintet, and was the sixth win against two defeats, a most enviable record against some of the strongest teams in western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio.

Reed Brilliant Star

Reed ran his total points to 145 last night, for the eight games, an average of slightly better than 18 points per game, and is already one of the most widely talked about stars in the Tri-State area.

New Castle will take on Ambridge to open Section Three here next Tuesday. The local hoopsters are all pepped up over having defeated Duquesne and Ford City on two successive outings, and having given the vaunted Homestead-Chick Davies team, a tough battle here last Tuesday.

New Castle starts Section Three with more respect than they have had for a few years. The Thomasmen are definitely not going to be "pushovers" for any team in the loop.

Lead Every Period

New Castle held the lead in every period last night. The end of the first session it was 12 to 8, and the halftime score was 24 to 19. At the end of the third period New Castle enjoyed its biggest lead at 32 to 22.

Ford City was simply not in the same class with New Castle last night, the locals scoring 17 field goals and 14 out of 25 fouls, to 13 field goals for Ford City and 10 out of 18 charity heaves.

New Castle has a brilliant foul-tossing record in the past two games, 17 out of 22 against the Dukes last Thursday. The foul tossing has kept the 'Canes in the game, a very important factor. Any team that drops in 31 fouls in 47 attempts will win a lot of games.

Lewis-Conti Shine
 Dick Lewis, Don Piccirillo and Phil Conti had 22 of the points between them, while Cialella had two fouls. Cialella and Conti played fine defensive games.

The New Castle High Reserves lost a tough 30 to 29 preliminary game.

Appearance Of Roosevelt Is Delayed

Icy Roads Cause Delay In Interview Until This Afternoon

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Dec. 29. —(INS)—Elliott Roosevelt's scheduled interview with District Attorney W. Vincent Grade regarding the cuts suffered by his actress-wife, Faye Emerson, was postponed this morning until this afternoon.

Roosevelt, who was en route from New York to Poughkeepsie by car was forced to turn back due to icy roads and was reported planning to come to the Dutchess county seat by train. He was granted a postponement to 2:30 p. m. from the previous 10 a. m. date with Grade.

Denies Discard
In New York, meanwhile, Miss Emerson denied that there was any "marital discord" between her and her husband before she cut her wrist at a Christmas party in their "dream house" at Hyde Park, N. Y.

She said:
"I love him very much and that should be obvious to everyone. There have been a lot of erroneous reports regarding differences over my stage career."

"I have no intention of making a movie, at least not in the near future. My husband does not object to my career. I intend to remain in the east for some time and continue my stage work."

"There is no difference between Elliott and myself on that issue." Joseph A. McCabe, attorney for Elliott, said earlier in Poughkeepsie that so far as he is concerned reports of discord between Faye and Elliott are completely unfounded.

Farmers Oppose Gas Tax Boost

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29. — The Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Federation served notice Tuesday that it will oppose any boost in the state's gasoline tax that would affect fuel for farm vehicles.

A resolution, passed unanimously at a state board of directors' meeting, expressed opposition "to any increase in gasoline taxes to support the state's road building program in so far as such increase might be imposed on gasoline for farm use."

Governor James M. Duff recently advocated a two-cent hike in the present four-cent a gallon state tax to finance the Commonwealth's highway program.

Police Guarding Duquesne Girl Result Of Threats

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29. —(INS)—Police today were guarding a 12-year-old nearby Duquesne girl after she reported that she had been threatened by a man who said that he had killed Carole Lee Kensing.

Shirley Bogdan, Duquesne, told police she received the call at 5:45 p. m. Tuesday from a person who said:
"This is the man who killed the Kensing girl. You are next."

She was the third young girl, one the daughter of a Pittsburgh detective, to receive a threatening telephone call from a man who claimed to have killed 12-year-old Carole Lee Kensing.

The junior high school student was brutally stabbed to death in her Brushston district home last Dec. 10 while her parents were visiting a neighborhood bowling alley.

Police said that one of the girls, Gail Banks, 12, a friend of the slain Carole Lee, has received several anonymous calls since the first one threatening her life.

One caller Tuesday told her: "Tonight is the night."

Police regard the calls as the work of a crank.

Alger Hiss Label Suit Is Delayed

Indefinite Delay Granted In Suit Filed Against Whitaker Chambers

BALTIMORE, Dec. 29. —(INS)—Alger Hiss, ex-state department official and Communist spy case figure, today obtained an indefinite delay in trial of his $75,000 libel suit against Whitaker Chambers.

The postponement was granted by Federal Judges William C. Coleman and W. Calvin Chesnut on application of Frank G. Allen, one of Hiss' attorneys.

Chambers, represented by Attorney Richard Cleveland, did not oppose the delay.

Although no reason was given for the action, it was pointed out that Hiss faces trial in New York next month on perjury charges growing out of his spy case testimony before a federal grand jury.

The libel suit resulted from the assertions of Chambers, former senior editor of Time magazine and confessed ex-spy ring courier, that Hiss supplied him with U. S. government secrets for transmission to Russian agents.

It was in connection with the libel litigation that Chambers produced the celebrated "pumpkin papers" which indicated widespread operations of a Communist espionage apparatus in Washington before Pearl Harbor.

Former Local Vet Dies In Butler

BUTLER, Dec. 29. —A 30-year-old Chicago man, John Anthony Rattigan, formerly of R. D. S. New Castle, died under mysterious circumstances Monday evening in Butler.

The man, a veteran of World War II, suffered a deep chin laceration, brush burns on cheek and a broken neck.

City police and the coroner theorized that the young worker who was hitchhiking toward his home in Chicago, may have suffered a heart attack and fallen and struck his chin on the curb.

Army discharge papers found in his possession, gave his address as New Castle, R. D. S. He is survived by his father, Anthony Rattigan of Butler and two children, Ronald and Joyce Ann Rattigan of New Castle.

The first hospital in America was founded in Philadelphia—the Pennsylvania hospital.

New York Stocks STOCK MARKET TONE IMPROVED

Changes In Market Are Small During Trading Of Morning Hours

NEW YORK, Dec. 28. —(INS)—The stock market displayed a much improved tone today, following yesterday's sharp sell-off. Leading issues chalked up gains of sizable fractions in forenoon dealings, although there were the usual number of laggards.

Belief that most of the selling to establish tax losses for 1948 had been completed was one of the factors in the recovery.

Leaders in the industrial group were Westinghouse up 1/2 at 24 1/2; DuPont up 1/2 at 18 1/2; and Standard Oil of New Jersey up 1/2 at 72 1/2.

U. S. Steel dropped 3/4 to 69 1/2. Rail shares were mostly higher, with Rock Island up 1/2 at 32 1/2; Southern Pacific up 1/2 at 48 1/2; Southern Railway up 1/2 at 39 1/2; and Atchafalpa up 1/2 at 100 1/2.

The Dow-Jones industrial averages showed a gain of 21 cents at the end of the first hour; rails were also up 21 cents while utilities declined 17 cents.

Volume to 11 a. m. totaled 240,000 shares, as compared with 300,000 shares in the same period yesterday.

Heavy selling in Waltham watch, which declined 1/2 point to 1, highlighted dealings on the curb market. The company had filed a petition yesterday to reorganize under the federal bankruptcy act.

Wheat and corn declined fractionally in commodities, while cotton was irregularly lower.

MRS. APPLEGATE DIES

SHARON, Pa., Dec. 29. —(INS)—Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Mary Reno Applegate, 91, first president of the Pennsylvania Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion, who died in Sharon Tuesday following a long illness.

Mrs. Applegate, member of a pioneer western Pennsylvania family, was the widow of William C. Applegate, a Sharon alderman for 20 years.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

A CURRENT QUESTION AMONG Pennsylvania hunters concerns what may be done about increasing license fees in the state. Sportsmen everywhere seem to agree that a substantial increase is needed. Most of them speak of it openly as something that is sure to come with the next session of legislature, writes Seth L. Myers, of the Northwest Division, Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsman's clubs. The only thing not agreed upon, appears to be the amount of increase to be asked. An entirely new angle to this controversy has been added during the past week. It comes in the form of a resolution from the Crawford County Council, of the State Federation of Sportsmen. Contrary to former resolutions covering non-resident license which proposed a large fee for big game and a lesser one for small game this one reverses the idea. It points out that while its costs Pennsylvania very little to propagate deer and bear, the cost of raising small game is tremendous. They refer to the building and operating game farms as extremely expensive. The cost of feeding and caring for pheasants and quail runs into many thousands of dollars annually. Prices paid to other states for cottontail rabbits to be stocked here are considered as a questionable policy.

The Crawford County boys feel that to sell this costly small game supply so cheaply is poor business. They believe the license for small game hunting by non-residents should be $20 and no other privilege should be granted with this special license. They also include that the non-resident license for big game should be a $15 fee. While fur trapping is not covered in this new resolution, the discussion leading up to its passage, brought out some strong opposition to the present law on trapping. Many of them do not approve of non-residents being allowed to come into Pennsylvania and take out the furs that rightfully belong to local farmers and boy trappers. Some of the fellows stated that if the game commission would place a small bag limit on fur-bearing animals for non-resident trappers it would stop the professional trappers coming here. Others believe a stiff non-resident trapper license is in order. This new resolution brings out some important features in the actual cost of providing small game for hunting and whether the state is selling it at a loss. Something to think about before the bill is presented in the General Assembly.

Persecution Of Catholic Church Seen In Poland

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29. —(INS)—Startling reports seeping through the "iron curtain" told today of relentless persecution of the Catholic church by the Communist-dominated government of Poland. By edict, the Polish ministry of justice forbade the singing of Christmas carols in the public schools during the Yule season just passed.

Catholic churches feared to hold midnight masses on Christmas Eve because of the hooliganism which disrupted them a year ago.

A priest—Father Roman Kaspienski—was sent to prison on Dec. 6 for ten years, and his personal property confiscated, on charges before military court that he had "encouraged a hostile attitude on the part of the population."

On Dec. 17, two leading Catholic newspapermen were arrested. Jerzy Braun, editor of the suppressed paper Tygodnik Warszawski, and Prof. Tadeusz Kudinski, a contributor to the paper Tygodnik Powszechny. No reasons for the arrests were given.

The Polish congress, which adjourned on Dec. 21, after "provocative" calls for increased action against the church, merged

Continue Search For Missing Plane

MIAMI, Dec. 29. —(INS)—A 40-plane search armada soared over the Caribbean air lanes between Miami and Puerto Rico today in the second day of a far-flung hunt for a missing DC-3 chartered airliner carrying 30 persons.

Hope was waning for saving the 27 passengers and three crew members aboard, but the coast guard in Miami sent a swarm of its own planes and a group of army and navy craft to continue the search.

Officers feared that the plane crashed into the sea, since no radio messages have been received from the craft.

A day-long search for the lost transport was conducted yesterday after the New York-bound plane, which had left San Juan, Puerto Rico, the night before, failed to make a scheduled stop at Miami.

Johnstown Passes Measure For Mercantile Tax

JOHNSTOWN, Dec. 29. — City council Tuesday passed a mercantile tax for 1949 which levies a one-half mill tax on gross business of retailers and a one-half mill tax on wholesalers. It will be based on the gross business during the last 11 months of 1948.

Council repealed the so-called $1-a-year per capita poll tax imposed on male residents of the city.

Introduced were measures to eliminate the $2 fee imposed on gasoline pumps and to make exempt from the business license ordinance those persons covered by the new mercantile tax.

Rayburn Confers With C.I.O. Head

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29. —(INS)—House Speaker-to-be Rayburn (D) Tex., conferred today with CIO President Philip Murray, but declined to say what action would be taken in Congress on repealing the Taft-Hartley Labor law.

Rayburn said the Taft-Hartley act was discussed but not "in detail". Also present at the conference, held in Rayburn's office, were other CIO leaders, including James Carey, secretary-treasurer.

Rayburn asked at a new conference whether he thought the Taft-Hartley law could be repealed, said:

"I voted against the Taft-Hartley bill originally, but I don't know what's going to be offered in its place, if anything. I haven't canvassed the situation among the members."

Freedom Defeats Mt. Jackson 49-47

Mt. Jackson High rallied for 17 points in the final quarter but fell two markers short last night at Freedom as the Bulldogs nipped the Mounties 49 to 47.

Coach Fran Webster's boys led in the first period and were behind by only 2 points at the half. The Mounties faltered in the third period and never quite caught Freedom in the exciting, crowd-pleasing contest.

Pat Kerr arched in 12 field goals and a foul to pace the scorers. Nudi chipped in 17 markers for Freedom.

Mt. Jackson concludes its pre-league jousts at Hickory High tonight.

Score by periods: Freedom, 12 12 12 13; Mt. Jackson, 10 14 6 17-49.

Three Injured In Highway Accident Near Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29. —(INS)—A 23-year-old bride-to-be and two young men, all from Wilkes-Barre, were injured today on Route 11 near Camp Hill when their car skidded into an automobile convoy trailer on a wet highway.

Taken to the Harrisburg hospital in a serious condition were Miss Hilda Churchfield and Richard Vild, 19. Less seriously injured was the bride-elect's brother, Richard Churchfield. They were en route to Philadelphia to meet Miss Churchfield's fiancé.

Miss Churchfield suffered hip and chest injuries, contusions and shock while Vild sustained possible internal injuries and a possible fractured back and shoulder. Young Churchfield was treated for concussion, a wrist injury and contusions.

The driver of the truck, Jacob G. Weldon, 24, of New Bloomfield, R. D., was not injured, according to State police.

Lovett Declares Communist Act Causes Concern

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28. —(INS)—Acting Secretary of State Lovett declared today that the communist action in branding Chinese Nationalist leaders as "war criminals" is a matter of grave concern to everyone.

Lovett told a news conference that it is unthinkable that the heads of a government recognized by all powers should be called war criminals.

He added that he did not think this represented the views of the Chinese people or any civilized government.

At the same time Lovett revealed that he had talked with Madame Chiang Kai-Shek at the State Department Monday.

Greenville Seeks Disposal Plant

GREENVILLE, Dec. 29. — Greenville borough council has authorized L. N. Dilley to negotiate with the W. A. A. to acquire the water and sewage disposal plant at the former Camp Reynolds site. Recommendation was made by a Greenville engineer that the borough acquire the plant rather than erect a new one.

The cost of improving the plant will be $190,000 while the cost of extending the sewer lines to the plant will be $217,829. The state department of health will recommend to the sanitary water board that the use of the plant is satisfactory and meets state requirements.

Fifteen Pass
Operator's Test

Thirteen Other Candidates Fail To Win Right To Drive Car
In State

Fifteen passed and 13 failed when candidates for a motor vehicle operator's permit received an examination from State police at the Armory Tuesday. It was the last test to be given here this year.

Those who failed will be required to pass before they will be permitted to drive unaccompanied by a licensed operator.

State Pig Raisers
Had Biggest Year

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—(INS)—Pennsylvania farmers sent their biggest crop of pigs to market in four years during 1948, it was reported today by the State Agriculture Department.

Indications point to even greater production in 1949, it was added. The fall crop of 504,000 pigs brought the state's total production for the year to 1,003,000, a survey showed. The total compares to production of 1,000,000 in 1947 and 1,053,000 in 1944, the previous high year.

Pig production hit a record of 1,387,000 in 1943. The statewide survey showed that farmers plan to breed 68,000 sows for spring farrowings, the department said. Only 70,000 were bred in the spring of 1948 spring farrowings and 73,000 in the fall.

The increase for 1949 "indicates that the greater supply of corn and its lower price is encouraging the raising of more pigs in Pennsylvania," the department explained.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 29.—Dan Duryea, who can belt a girl in the jaw with more charm than any actor in films, is quite happy about his life's work. From an actor's standpoint, that is.

But from the fatherhood angle, Duryea is tied up like an India rubber man wrestling a pretzel bender. Dan is a happily married gent and the proud poppa of two jumping-jack boys. Up to this late date, the kids, Dick, 9, and Pete, 4, have never seen their famous father on the screen.

"And," Dan said today, "from the looks of my present movie roles it may be years before the boys ever do see one of my films. 'I always portray such utterly good-for-nothing, woman-slapping heels that I don't know whether or no they'd quite understand my screen character.

"The boys are even beginning to wonder just what their old man really does for a living."

Dotty Lamour Fan
One of the kids is a redhot Dorothy Lamour fan. He overheard a conversation the other day about Dan's new Paramount picture, "Mishandled," in which papa co-stars with Dottie and Sterling Hayden. So the lads kicked up a fuss to visit the set and meet up with their favorite glamour gal.

Dan explained: "If they came out to the set they'd probably arrive at the precise moment I was cuffing Dorothy around the joint. Or then they would catch the picture when it played at the local theaters.

"The kids think their dad is a pretty nice guy, but I don't want to take any chances of changing their opinion. I have carefully explained that I'm an actor and do make-believe things for the movies. The boys have accepted this fact."

Just In Pictures
One day at school a youngster told Dick he had seen Mister Duryea slap Joan Bennett. Dick was quite upset about the whole thing until Dan explained it was merely for a picture.

"I can tell them about it," he said, "but I'd just as soon they would not actually see it."

In "Manhandled" Dan not only slaps Dorothy—he puts her to sleep twice with roundhouse punches that are delivered with great finesse and dispatch.

"This is probably the most hateful role I've ever played," he admitted. "And goodness knows I've played some mean ones. I'll even hate myself when I see it."

Should Never Change
If Dan's fans have their way he'll never change, on the screen anyway. Only once did he portray a nice fellow. After the picture's release, thousands of fans wrote the studio demanding he be chucked back in "heavy" roles.

Duryea currently receives close to 3,000 letters weekly, mostly from females. The majority of them say they love to see him sock his leading women.

Beauty seems to mean little to Dan. He has played opposite the slickest chicks in the business, including Joan Bennett, Elizabeth Scott, Yvonne De Carlo and now Lamour. And has slapped all of them around.

"I'm not exactly complaining," Dan mused. "But I would like to make one picture my kids could see now."

Fine Musical Program Presented By Anthony Casbero And Edwin Lewis

Tuesday noon's meeting of New Castle Lions Club was featured by an outstanding musical program, presented by two of New Castle's talented artists, Anthony Casbero, violinist; and Edwin Lewis, pianist.

They presented two groups of numbers covering a wide range, the composers including: Webber, Johann Strauss, Corelli, Bizet, and Sarasate.

They were given a big hand a Lion roar by the club, at the conclusion of the program.

It was announced that Sam Rashid, a member of the New Castle Club would address the Volant club, last evening, and he was accompanied by a group of members from the club.

Britain estimates that flies did $36,788,000 damage there in the first six months of this year.

Thousand Added
To Relief Rolls
In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Dec. 29.—The state's public assistance rolls were increased by 1,009 persons during the week ending December 18 for the second week in three months the upsurge had passed the thousand mark.

said Secretary Frank A. Robbins, Jr. The general assistance rolls are quick to reflect changes in employment conditions since it is the only type payment granted to persons losing their jobs.
